MR. COSTELLO TALKS.

He is seen in St. Paul by a Herald Reporter and Tells All About His Candidacy for the Governorship of Our Cold Northern Territory.

Does Not Want to Go to Alaska, But His Friends Are Hard at Work.

ST. PAUL, March 12.—[Special.]—Hon. K. A. Costello, of Duluth, who is stated to be a candidate for the governorship of Alaska to succeed Governor Swineford, is at the Merchants hotel, and was found in his room last night surrounded by a party of friends from Graceville, Big Stone county, which he formerly represented in the legislature.

"I must acknowledge," he said, "that I was considerably surprised when I read the statement that I wanted to be governor of Alaska, and as one of my friends remarked, 'Can any private conversation occur in the city without the newspapers knowing of it?'"

"The fact is, Mr. Crossfield, Lieutenant-Governor Rice and other warm personal friends of mine, called on me about six weeks or more ago, and said they wanted me to get a federal appointment. I said I did not want any, nor did I see on what particular grounds I was entitled to any such office. Well, they said I was a good, straight republican, and an Irish republican at that, and they wanted to see an Irish republican recognized, and I was the only one of that class Minnesota could present for an office. I at once declared that I would never be a candidate on the ground that I was of Irish descent, as I was a thorough American, and the matter then dropped.

"Subsequently my friends drew up a petition to the president to appoint me governor of Alaska, and guaranteed that the endorsement of all the prominent men of the party of this state could be secured to advance my claims. I said I had no desire to go to Alaska, and if I had wanted an office I could have had what I regard the best position in Gov. Merriam's gift, which was offered to me and declined.

"And so the matter stands now. I have as yet not announced myself a candidate for the governorship of Alaska, and if I was, why, I would not hesitate to say so. But of course I cannot control my friends, and they are putting my name forward for the position, but without my active co-operation. There will be a hard fight for the position, naturally, and the man who gets it will have to work early and late and spend much money. I do not feel disposed to enter into such a contest, and was sorry the statement that I am a candidate appeared, though I must acknowledge the very friendly way in which it was written."

MAY BE HAPPY YET.

Secretary Noble suspends the operations of the Land Office Consolidation.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Secretary Noble, by order of the president, has telegraphed to the various land offices in the West a suspension of the executive order, dated Feb. 21, consolidating a number of offices. This order was protested against by several Western senators at the time, and Senator Saltonstall a resolution through the senate, asking information from the secretary of the interior, and requesting the suspension of the order, pending the furnishing of the information. Secretary Vilas disregarded this resolution, but Secretary Noble has just taken action in accordance with it.

Goff Not Entitled to the Seat.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 12.—The supreme court met this morning and decided in the Goff-Wilson gubernatorial case that Gov. Wilson is entitled to hold over until such time as the contest between Fleming and Goff shall have been settled; or, in other words, Goff is not entitled to the seat on the grounds that the returns were declared by the legislature. The fight will now be between Wilson and Carr on a quo-warranto proceeding.

The Parnell Commission.

LONDON, March 12.—The Parnell commission resumed its sitting today. An accountant testified that he had examined the books of the Irishman bank but was unable to trace the persons to whom the money or checks was paid, or whence the checks came. Between November 1879 and September 1882 the bank received £201,250 and paid out £201,276. The bank refused to allow witness to examine its lodgment slips.

President Blaine, at Last.

CHICAGO, March 12.—Emmons Blaine, who has resigned his position as general freight and passenger agent of the Santa Fe & California road, is to be vice-president of the West Virginia Central railroad, with headquarters at Baltimore.

Cleanliness and Goutlines.

A meeting of the directors of the Y. M. C. A. was held last night. It was decided to fit up the bath tubs and rooms that have been standing year uncompleted, and to carry out other changes at once provided certain funds can be made available. It was also decided to organize a junior department and the ladies auxiliary will fit up a part of the second story rooms for the boys. M. H. Fitzpatrick and Geo. S. Bixby resigned from the directorate.

The Great Weavers' Strike.

FALL RIVER, Mass., March 12.—The strike situation in this city is not greatly changed, but appears to favor the weavers. They are firm, and only 1000 out of 4000 looms are running. A mass meeting of 6000 striking weavers was held in the South park this morning.

THE DAKOTA OFFICES.

Surprise That the President Delays Action—Resignations Would be Accepted.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—The failure of the Dakota nominations to appear in the list sent to the senate yesterday surprised some but not all of the Dakota people in the city. The prediction is again made that the names of Mellette and Richardson will go in tomorrow. If they do not go in there will be a good deal of speculation as to the mysterious influence that is holding them back.

Gov. Pierce is not, and never has been since he reached here, opposing the nomination of Mellette as governor. While there has been no opportunity for anything like a formal understanding between them, there is mutual confidence, and Pierce does not believe Mellette's appointment would endanger his chances as senator.

Pierce has declined to endorse the joint application of Mellette and Richardson chiefly on account of McCormack. He is friendly to Richardson and would be glad to see him appointed, but will not put his name to paper demanding in effect the removal of McCormack. He thinks McCormack is a man of high character, but should not be dismissed as peremptorily as a governor who has assailed and trampled them. He thinks McCormack ought to be allowed to remain in office a week or two at least after church is removed. This is what McCormack thinks too, apparently.

It transpires that Secretary Noble on Saturday telegraphed to Richardson and McCormack offering them an opportunity to tender their resignations. Neither of them availed himself of the opportunity.

Church answered that his resignation was ready whenever it was demanded, and Secretary McCormack that he would be glad to resign, but would prefer to have it take effect at the end of the month.

BAYARD'S DIPLOMACY.

He Allowed Important News Dispatches to be Suppressed.

New York, March 12.—A Washington special gives the following interesting interview with a naval officer:

"My information is," says this officer, "that the last official dispatch left San Francisco about the last of January and reached 'Frisco' about February 10 or 12. These dispatches were never transmitted to the senate, which was looking for so much light on the vexed question, only two weeks before. Other dispatches had been promptly sent to the senate and the query is natural, why were not these last as promptly transmitted?"

"Why were they not so transmitted, and laid on the table after a wait of several minutes, Mr. Edmunds broke the stillness by a statement that he had requested by Mr. Platt to say that the gentleman representing both sides of the chamber, who had in charge the recommendations for the committee of the senate, would be ready to call a very short time, and to ask the senate to recess. No motion for a recess was made, and the senate continued in session without any attempt to transact business.

Mr. Platt soon offered a resolution (which was agreed to) for the election of standing committees. The committees are as follows: Agricultural and forestry, Paddock; appropriation, Allison; commerce and revenue, Chase; claims, Spooner; coast defenses, Dolph; commerce, Fry; district of Columbia, Ingersoll; judiciary, Edmunds; library, Evans; manufactures, McMillan; military affairs, Hawley; mines and mining, Stewart; naval affairs, Cannon; patents, Teller; pensions, Davis; post-office and post roads, Sawyer; printing, Manderson; private land claims, Ransom; privileges and immunities, Sherman; public lands, Stanford; public lands, Plumb; railroads, Mitchell.

Nominations Confirmed.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—The senate this afternoon confirmed the following nominations: Thomas W. Palmer, of Michigan, to be minister to Spain; John D. Swift, of California, to be minister to Japan; John D. Washburn, of Massachusetts, to be minister to Switzerland; George C. Tichenor, of Illinois, to be assistant secretary of the treasury, vice Isaac H. Maynard, resigned.

GENEROUS COL. TOM.

How a Minneapolis Man Eased His Friend's Death.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—A story greatly to the credit of Col. Tom Lowry, of Minneapolis, is going the rounds here.

Lowry was a great friend of Congressman Dick Townsend, whose funeral he will attend tomorrow. In the weakness and half delirium which preceded his death Townsend repeatedly called for Lowry, and at last he was sent for. The dying man, who was unable to speak, known that he was distressed by the knowledge that his homestead was encumbered with a mortgage of $5000, which might embarrass his widow. Stepping aside from the bed Lowry wrote a check for the amount and held it before Townsend's eyes, asking if that made his mind easier. The dying man signified his relief, and the friends parted for the last time on earth.

The Title Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—In the continued absence of the vice-president, Mr. Ingalls acted today, as yesterday, as presiding officer pro tem. The message of the president transmitting the papers in the case of Louis Riel was presented and laid on the table after a wait of several minutes. Mr. Edmunds broke the stillness by a statement that he had requested by Mr. Platt to say that the gentleman representing both sides of the chamber, who had in charge the recommendations for the committee of the senate, would be ready to call a very short time, and to ask the senate to recess. ## IRELAND'S HOLIDAY.

Duluth will join with West Superior in Celebrating the 17th.

It has been decided by those interested in that annual event, St. Patrick's day, that no special celebration will take place this year at Duluth. But at West Superior arrangements have been made to observe the day by a parade and celebration. The Duluth Ancient Order of Hibernians will participate in the event, and special trains will take those interested to and from West Superior next Sunday. Religious services will take place at the church of the Sacred Heart. From the church the procession will start, the order of march, including A. O. H. of Duluth and Superior, officers of St. Joseph's society and others. Veterans will be sung and an address delivered to the clergy at St. Francis church. Those desiring can return on the regular 6 p. m. train for Duluth.

To Fight the Beef Combine.

ST. LOUIS, March 12.—The rotunda and lobby of the Southern hotel were crowded this morning by delegates to the legislative conference to consider the best methods of combating the beef combine. Nearly all the delegates to the convention have arrived. The convention is called to order at 12:15. Temporary organization was effected by the election of Senator F. E. Gillette, of Kansas, chairman, and Thomas E. Cook, of Nebraska, secretary. Committees on credentials, permanent organization and order of business were appointed and the convention took a recess.

Pennsylvania Churches.

LANCASTER, Pa., March 12.—[Special.]—The 102nd annual convention of the Pennsylvania conference of the Methodist Episcopal church opened at the Duke street church today under the presidency of Right Rev. Bishop Samuel M. Merrill. Three hundred and thirty-six delegates answered to the roll. The reports of the presiding elders will show that the denomination has made extraordinary strides during the year.

WEST SUPERIOR.

Village Council Meeting—Visit of Dr. K. H. Ingalls—Society.

An adjourned meeting of the village council was held yesterday afternoon. A resolution to open Broadway through the village was adopted. The grounds were crowded with spectators. The Prince of Wales received the teams in the pavilion. The game resulted in a victory for the Chicago team, the score standing Chicago 7, All-American 4.

Considerable petty fighting was done over the question of raising the fire bells for other purposes than fire alarms, but it was finally disposed of by letting them be used at present. Village Attorney Perkins was ordered to go to Madison to look after the city charter and an order drawn on the treasurer for $15 to defray his expenses. Adjourned to meet on Monday next.

Dr. S. S. Kilginton came into town yesterday morning and was taken in charge by a committee appointed by President Paden, who took him over a large part of the town to get his opinion as to the best location for a crematory for garbage. The doctor has had charge of sanitary matters for the city of Minneapolis for several years past, and has studied the crematory question thoroughly, having visited many cities in giving the subject.

In the afternoon he came before the village council and gave a very interesting talk upon the matter, illustrating it with plans of crematories in use in various cities, and those of the one in use in Minneapolis, built from his own plans and after his patent.

The regular monthly meeting of the West Superior Building & Loan Association was held last night at the secretaries' residence. The report of the association was read by the secretary, and the association has loaned $1900 during the first five months of its existence, and now has on hand upwards of $1000 for which applications have already been received. The secretary will make the first semi-annual report of the association to stockholders next month.

The Duchess theatre was opened last night. The hall was not large enough to hold all who wished to enter, and fully two hundred were turned away. The show was a clean one, and was thoroughly enjoyed by all, from the grey-headed old men with glasses to the heedless youth.

MARINE NOTES.

The longshoremen are beginning to come out of their winter retreats, and are thronging to the docks. The men anticipate a busy season.

Fishermen have utilized nearly all the otherwise vacant warehouses, and are busily engaged in manufacturing and repairing nets.

The Stearns, formerly of this port, is said to be going on the Port Hope and Detroit run this spring.

The custom-house here has received from the dominion government a notice to be on the lookout for a newly discovered obstruction to navigation in Georgian Bay, which has been charted as "McNab's" rock. It is covered with a scant eleven feet of water. It is located east half south of Surprise-shoal and is about half a nautical mile from the shore. When at McNab's rock Cape Crocker lines with the center of Griffith's island, and the extreme west of Barter island is under the base of Cape Duane's high bluff.

Vessels passing to the northwest should keep all Griffith's island open off Cape Crocker. The line joining Cape Crocker and Cabot's head leads southwest and east. The shoal has two spots, the northeast one going by the name of McNab's rock, and the south one by the name of McNab's shoal. It is about one-half mile from the extreme northeast point of Cape Crocker. When shut in altogether Griffith's island leads inside, and the whole of the island open off Cape Crocker leads outside the patches.

THE SOLONS AT WORK.

What Went Into the Open Hopper of the Legislative Mill Today.

The State Inspector of Boilers Makes a Report of His Work Today.

House Delegates to St. Louis Carry Too Many Guns for Senators.

ST. PAUL, March 12.—In the senate today James W. Morse, president of the state board of inspectors of steam vessels and boilers, submitted a report which showed the number of boilers inspected in the state for the year ending January, 1889, to have been 1653. The fees received for inspection amounted to $825, and the fees for original engineers' licenses and renewals, $1002.50; total, $1827.50. The expenses were $553, leaving a balance of $1274.50 for the inspector and his two assistants. The report was made in response to a resolution passed in the senate February 27.

Senator Smith sent up a bill in relation to the sale and manufacture of cider vinegar. It provides that the adulteration of vinegar shall be considered a misdemeanor and fixes the fine at not less than $100.

Secretary Cutler made a report which showed the total cost for the daily and weekly newspapers taken by members to be $21,562. Chief Clerk Carpenter, of the house, reported that that body refused to concur in the amendment to senate file 13, relating to tax sales and insisted upon the passage of the bill as drafted. President Rice appointed Senators Goodrich, Daniels and Day as a conference committee.

The house this morning adopted a resolution requiring all committees to report as soon as possible on all bills in their charge.

The Duluth butchers sent in a protest against the passage of the Scheffer-dressed-meat bill.

The judiciary committee reported favorably on the bill to elect railroad commissioners.

The house then went into committee of the whole, with Mr. Fleming in the chair, and took up C. K. Davis's bill to abolish capital punishment.

STATE LEGISLATORS.

They Try Their "Practice Hand" on National Matters.

ST. PAUL, March 12.—There was a very slim attendance of members at yesterday's session of the house, and during the greater part of the afternoon, which was occupied with routine work, there was not a quorum present. The only thing that varied the monotony was a motion by Mr. Crossfield to lay on the table a joint resolution emanating from the senate requesting congress to conclude a treaty with Great Britain in the questions now in dispute between the two nations, and urging the appointment of a court of arbitration to settle all difficulties, instead of resorting to the barbarous practice of war.

"I don't believe," said Mr. Crossfield, "in our catering to England or anybody else. The United States should care for itself. We have our government and officers to conduct these matters, and there is no need for this resolution whatever."

Mr. Lane heartily agreed with Mr. Crossfield's sentiments and the resolution was unanimously squelched.

A Bit of a Breeze.

ST. PAUL, March 12.—[Special.]—The dead body of a man, who had evidently committed suicide by shooting himself, was found this morning in a recent lot at Twenty-second street and Hennepin avenue.

In his pocket was a box of cartridges and a bunch of letters. From these it was learned that the man's name was Germond Olson. Some of the letters were dated at a hotel in some of these cities where he boarded, from December 1 to February 18. From this it seems he intended committing suicide, but the letter fails to state the nature of the trouble or the name of the person for whom the letter was intended.

Several letters from Stavanger, Norway, show that he was well connected. Some of these letters were addressed to him at Duluth, from which place they were re-addressed to him at Endes hotel. None of the letters throw any particular light on what his occupation or connections were. A leather purse, containing some money, was found in his pocket.

Nothing can be learned in Duluth of Germond Olson, the suicide, and he is believed to have been a stranger temporarily stopping here either with some friends or at a hotel. The mail read-dressed to him from here was not addressed at the post office, and nothing is known there of such a man.

Getting Ready for Business.

ST. LOUIS, March 12.—[Special.]—The employees are at work removing ice from the locks. It is found the ice is about twenty-eight inches thick in the canal, the same as it was last year. Last year, with the same condition of ice and about the same present weather, navigation did not open until May 10.

A GREAT STRIKE.

It is not often that the time of a strike is well chosen. Few strikes study the market and the business outlook impartially and intelligently. A call for an advance of wages is frequently made when the employer is least able to bear the increase or when he is handicapped by previous contracts taken on a basis of existing wages. For this reason it is now common to insert a provision in contracts for needed relief from obligations in the event of a strike.

But in the case of the present strike of weavers in Fall River, the most general that has taken place for years, the occasion was shrewdly chosen from the weavers' point of view. The past year has been one of uncommon prosperity for the print cloth industry which centers at Fall River. All the mill companies, except one, have paid large dividends and the exception was due to notorious mismanagement corrected before the close of the year by a change of officers. The cotton manufacturing industry was never in better general condition than today, and the Fall River specialty of print cloth leads all in this respect. For years this line has been a depressed condition, but the prudent restriction of production, and the introduction of novelties at length caused the demand to pass the supply. All the mills are running full, with orders placed, in many instances, as far ahead as September. Five new mills are in course of construction, and three more are planned.

A strike now jeopardizes the filling of contracts, and counts every day against certain profits. The weavers are skilled laborers, and their places cannot readily be filled. Moreover, their leaving work will soon constrain other departments to shut down unless the strike is ended. As to the fairness of the demand for more pay we cannot judge, for lack of sufficient evidence. It is known, however, that the mills have taken contracts ahead, and unless protected by prudent provisions the present strike will certainly embarrass them, and a forced increase might cause them to lose money on contracts in hand. If so, the strikers cannot expect that the manufacturers will yield with a good grace or deal liberally with them in dull seasons to come.

Confidant of this kind, whatever temporary gain may come out of them, are injurious to both sides in the long run. Every effort should be made on both sides to avoid them. In the case now pending we think the strikers will win, if they can afford to hold out for a week or two. But their victory may be dearly bought.

THE EIGHT HOUR LEAGUE.

The recent formation of the Minnesota Eight-hour league by the labor organizations of the Twin cities, apparently brings the eight-hour question before the employers of the state in a form to challenge their consideration. The declared objects of the movement are to divide the work already done among a greater number of workmen, and thus furnish work for the unemployed, and to place within the reach of the wage-earners the opportunity for intellectual, moral, social and religious improvement. Such motives are well-intended and we have no disposition to question the sincerity of the league. The practical advisability of the movement is another question. Unless there is concurrent and effective action fixing the hours of labor in neighboring states, there will certainly be a drift of capital from the state having shortest hours of labor, if the rate per hour is higher in that state than in others. If the workmen are content to accept diminished pay for a day's work of eight hours, through a charitable willingness to give the difference to unemployed men, there may be no outcry of capital, but eight hour movements do not, as a rule, anticipate or accept this conclusion.

Record in Helena? It so, for all the inside society news the Record will be official.

It is now reported that the Mexican government has amended the concession granted to the late Captain Eads for a ship railway between the Atlantic and Pacific, by guaranteeing earnings to the extent of 5 percent on the estimated cost of construction. This, if true, assures the construction of the road, for its working plans are fully prepared and Mr. Corbelle, the engineer in charge, is fully competent to execute them. He was the right-hand man of Captain Eads in the great work of opening the South Pass of the Mississippi, and we are glad to see that he will have the opportunity to make this economic monument to the genius and public service of his friend, an American of whom the country is justly proud. The Tahantepac ship railway will be one of the wonders of the marvelous world of today.

SEEN AND HEARD.

"Compared with other Minnesota towns, I think we have a remarkably well governed city," said Aldermen Kanning. "Not that we are by any means perfect, or are not open to criticism; but that our immoral places are left run on the wide-open plan that obtains in St. Paul and elsewhere. I have been in the capital city for some days, returning last night. I was there over Sunday, and I do not exaggerate when I say that saloons were open at the front door, pool and billiard tables running, and all other resorts were as free to the public as they would be on a week day. Duluth is not a wicked city; and I wish those who say she is would compare her with other cities in the Northwest with like elements to contend with."

Capt. J. W. Miller: "I see that John Gordon has been appointed to the management of the Jim Hill boats. Do you know that man is the best steamboat agent on the lakes; he can get hold of business, and never turn a hair; you may say him; he's a valuable business man, good natured, witty and keen."

"We are going to keep the city clean this year, if such a thing is possible," said Health Officer Sherwin. "The city has been a great source of trouble to us heretofore, but this season we are going to take stringent measures against throwing filth in those thoroughfares, and some people are likely to be harshly dealt with. We are formulating a measure for the creation of a garbage collecting force, and for the advertisement for the city. Every precaution possible will be taken to guard against epidemics and the city's sick list will be much smaller than it was in 1888."

WORK OF THE LEGISLATURE.
ST. PAUL, March 12.—[Special].—The public notice not in session yesterday, and only a bare quorum was present at the afternoon session of the house. The day from a legislative standpoint was very dull. Nothing of any importance transpired and an early adjournment was the result.

Speaker Graves is receiving a great deal of praise from members of the legislature for the shrewd methods he employed and the keen management he exercised in getting the Duluth & Winnipeg bill through the house. He was aided in this work by M. J. Flynn, the member from Morrison, who never makes a speech and seldom addresses the chair except to raise a point of order. Both the speaker and the member from Morrison did some hard work, and had the pleasure of seeing the bill go through with a big majority.

HE SMASHED THE JAILOR.

A Desperate Character Makes His Escape From the County Jail.

Is Thought to Have Been Wanted for a Grave Crime Elsewhere.

A loud yell of alarm, followed by a groan and the fall of a heavy body, roused Sheriff Sharkey at a quarter past 10 this morning.

As the sheriff bounded out of bed the sound of a slamming door came to his ears. Hastily grasping his revolver, and clad only in his night-dress, the sheriff dashed down the stairs, to find Turnkey J. O. Hall lying insensible at the foot of the stairway and bleeding from a terrible gash in the side of the head.

The sheriff saw that the inner and outer doors of the cell room were unlocked and the turnkey's keys still in the lock of the inner door. Hastily glancing inside and seeing the majority of the twelve prisoners were still in the cage and corridor he looked the doors and turned his attention to the wounded man, who was then slowly regaining consciousness.

Dr. Magie was telephoned for and was on the spot in less than fifteen minutes. When again conscious Turnkey Hall made the following statement:

"I had gone into the cell room about twenty minutes previously to let the prisoners out of the cage to wash, and left the room for a few minutes. Upon again entering to see that the prisoners had returned to the cage I opened the outer door, looked through the window of the inner door but then I did not observe anything wrong. I unlocked the inner door and had opened it but a trifle when I saw the prisoner, J. A. Long, standing close to the door. I yelled, and immediately afterward was struck by Long and I staggered back he pushed by me, escaping through the doorway in the private apartments of the jail. I fell back insensible on the stairway, where the sheriff found me, and knew nothing further for some moments."

Upon reference to the prison calendar the following description of the escaped prisoner is gleaned: J. A. Long, American, 3 feet 11 inches, age 27, brown hair, blue eyes, brown complexion; charged with grand larceny in the second degree; committed and held over by Judge E. P. Martin to the grand jury on January 30. Long is spoken of as a "sleek" talker, with a smooth face and a peculiar appearance of the front teeth, one of which is either very short or out completely. He was nabbed this time for the larceny of a watch and money from the Merchants hotel and is a professional thief and burglar. One of the prisoners witnessed the assault but was too frightened to give but the alarm. Among the other prisoners were Brennan, the overcoat thief, and Nick Much, the Italian razor bend. The hallway of the jail is plentifully sprinkled with blood spots, but everything is quiet and there is no excitement among the prisoners.

The escaping prisoner took his weapon along with him, and the trace of it had been found up to ten o'clock. He was dressed in a slouch hat, dark clothes and a black overcoat when he escaped. The sheriff thinks some of the street gang carried the piece of iron with which the assault was made into the jail. All points liable to be reached by the prisoner are notified and a keen lookout is being kept. Turnkey Hall is very weak, but will pull through all right.

THE DAY IN THE CITY.

Saturday evening at the People's theater a grand complimentary benefit will be tendered Mr. Fisket Barnett, his employees and the talent now playing at the house. Killen, Cardiff and other well-known people have volunteered to take part, and the house will doubtless be full.

Ed. Smith, the Denver heavy-weight, is expected here soon by Frank Hayes, his broker. Hayes will put his man against any pugilist in the Northwest, none barred. Smith whipped La Blanche, the mummy, about two weeks ago in two rounds, and is one of the best fighters in the country. He trains at 170 pounds.

Workmen this morning unearthed an unopened box of cigars from that part of the opera house basement occupied by Boyce & Totman.

Prof. S. W. Mounts went to St. Paul today to inspect the system of music instruction of the schools there, with a view to improve the music culture of the schools.

Special trains will be run St. Patrick's day to West Superior to accommodate those desiring to attend from Duluth.

The divorce case of Johnson vs. Johnson is being tried this afternoon before Judge Stearns. The action is brought by the husband on the ground of immoral conduct.

More appointments of the mayor will probably be presented to the council at its next session.

The inauguration of the new Scandinavian Turn Verein will be completed in a few days and permanent quarters will be then secured. The club will start with a large membership.

The Eastern Minnesota's big coal dock, now building, and which will have capacity for handling about 600,000 tons during a season, will be leased to three coal firms, one taking the whole of one side the slip, and two new firms the other side. Dear & Hayes are pushing work on the dock rapidly.

PARK POINT ELECTION.

A Warmly-Contested Village Election Held Across the Canal Today.

As the Herald goes to press, the result of the Park Point village election cannot be officially stated, but enough has been learned to point to the selection of the regular citizens' ticket as follows, the only one being in doubt being the candidate for justice for two years: President, M. Gallingher; councilmen, J. S. Wilson, A. F. Webber, W. McDonald; recorder, John Meers; treasurer, John Russell; justice two years, A. C. Robinson; justice one year, Wm. Osborn; constables, Wm. Coleman, Donald Irwin. It has been the hottest election in the history of the village. The questions of annexation and of street railway and other matters stirred up and influenced the voters.

A BIG JAIL DELIVERY.

Seven Desperadoes Escape From the Ashland County Jail Last Night.

"Curly Bill," the Terror of the State Pine Regions, Instantly Killed.

Tim and Pete Barrett Claim That Their Brother Fired the Fatal Shot.

ASHLAND, March 13.—Ashland's new, new county jail was, at 8:45 o'clock last night, delivered of seven of the worst criminals, ever placed behind iron bars. Chief of Police Montgomery received a telephone message from Hans Olson, the jailer, who said he had been assaulted by the prisoners, his keys taken away, and that the birds had flown. He was in the cage when three of the prisoners made a rush at him, knocking him senseless with some instrument. When he had recovered the birds had left. They took the jailer's keys and had no trouble in passing through the outer doors. The alarm was given within a very few minutes, and both the police force and the sheriff and his deputies were out in force.

Upon examination it was found that Daniel Ritchie and Louis Burke held for murder, Lou James and John Martin for burglary, John McDonald and Win. Graham charged with assault with intent to kill, and Rob and Jack Hoeslop held for larceny, were the men who succeeded in getting out. Ritchie is the man who so brutally shot down and killed young Bill Antrim in a second street saloon last August. He was the late Jack Mahoney's right-hand man and is the worst desperado in this part of the state. His trial was to come off at the coming term of court, he having been granted a continuance.

Louis Burke is only of recent residence at the county jail. About three weeks ago at High bridge he butchered a man named Alex Montgomery with an axe on account of improper relations with his wife. Martin and Williams are two burglars who ransacked Ashland from top to bottom a few months ago, and were waiting trial. McDonald and Graham are well-known foot-pads. Two years ago, during Sheriff Breen's administration, they broke jail. Mr. Breen, just before his term of office expired, traced them to Spokane Falls, W. T., and brought them here last December.

Taken all in all, it is the most desperate and wholesale delivery of tough prisoners in the Northwest in many years. The last seen of the convicts they were in the vicinity of the Lake Shore roundhouse, headed in a southerly direction, and it is believed the chances are against their recapture, as most of the men, especially Ritchie, have the strong support of a tough element.

HIS WIFE'S HONOR.

A Desperado Shot Dead by a Man He Assaulted.

RUN RIVER CAMP, March 13.—Louis White, generally known as "Curly Bill," the terror of the pine regions of Minnesota, was instantly killed yesterday by Charles Hayden. In the noon mail Hayden received a cabinet photograph of his wife and two children, and the loggers gathered about him to look at it. While attacked the woman's character and a violent quarrel ensued, ending in a rough and tumble fight, Hayden coming off the victor. After the fight White went to his room and the convicts, with an axe, rushed at Hayden, who calmly drew a revolver and shot the bully through the heart. Hayden was placed under arrest. He is a young man of 34 and came here from Augusta, Maine. White's people live at Muskegon, Michigan.

ARE THEY INNOCENT?

Mrs. Moak Thinks Tim and Pete Barrett Did Not Kill Tallieson.

MINNEAPOLIS, March 13.—"Tim and Pete Barrett are innocent of the murder of Tallieson," Mrs. Mary A. Moak, who has been laboring to convert them to Christianity for the past two months. She has been teaching them from the Bible and has, she now declares, converted them to Christ. On last Sunday afternoon, while talking with her, she says they made a full confession of their connection with the murder of Tallieson, and with the awful sentence of death hanging over them and with no hope of being saved from the gallows. Mrs. Moak says: "They began by an account of their early life and the incidents of their training. How they were encouraged in crime rather than restrained from it. They said that their father, a man of many years, was a drunkard and that they younger days were many and that they had done such deeds without a thought of whether it was right or wrong. They acknowledged that they were accomplices in the murder of Tallieson, and that the whole affair was planned and the fatal shot was fired by their brother Henry. They did not say this to me with the idea that it would help them to escape from death, but penitently and sincerely, and I believe every word of it. They did not seem especially bitter toward the brother who had implicated them to save his own life, and expressed no ill words toward him."

WILL NOT AFFECT THE GOVERNMENT.

LONDON, March 13.—[Special].—So far as any effect on the government is concerned, the mass meeting in Memorial hall this afternoon will be like throwing water on a duck's back. Salisbury, Smith and Balfour are committed to their present policy, and they will continue in that line until their tenure of power comes to an end. Upon sentiment in the country, however, it is expected to have an important influence. The resolutions denouncing and indicting the government were adopted at today's meeting, and these will be submitted to Mr. Parnell at the gathering in St. James's hall tonight, and over which Mr. John Morley will preside. It is doubtful if the Irish leader will make any allusion to the failure of the Times's attack upon him, as he is understood to be reserving his batteries for another occasion. Considerable regret is expressed that the initial demonstration for the Henry George campaign is also fixed for tonight, as several of the leading participants in the one are also identified with the other. London, however, is big enough to hold both.

TOWER NEWS.

What is Going on in the Vermilion Range Metropolis.

TOWER, March 13.—[Special].—Arty Myles and Joe Andrews were painfully, although not seriously, injured yesterday at the saw mill of coming in contact with a sawlog. The C. L. White mill is now running regularly. Capt. Louis Morier visited Ely yesterday. Mayor Shephard has returned from his trip to the eastern part of the range and reports that country booming. Chief of Police Owens bivouacked at Robinson Lake yesterday, and the night previous looking up a few witnesses. The Murphy, Bailey and Sanders' lumber camps are breaking up. The following officers were elected in Breitung township yesterday: Supervisors, G. W. Wallis, chairman, W. Phillips, P. P. Morcom; treasurer, C. A. Lovell; clerk, W. J. West; assessor, G. H. Vivian; justice of the peace, W. J. Morton; justice of peace to fill vacancy, E. M. Richards; overseer of highway, J. B. Lorraine; constable, E. L. Culbert; census committee, Arch. McDonald, M. E. Pearce, E. P. Morcom.

Mr. Neil McInnis positively declines county office, the coming city election. Mr. McInnis was one of the most active members of the present council.

John Sawbridge, one of Tower's leading merchants, in Duluth yesterday attending to legal business.

Landlord Caples of the Pioneer hotel home from an extended visit to Duluth.

J. D. Brubacher has resigned his position in the post office, and is now bookkeeper for the Scott & Plowden meat market, vice W. H. Huntington.

NOTES FROM ELY.

Ely, March 13.—[Special].—Business is brightening in all branches of trade, and the merchants are confident of a brisk summer's profit. New buildings are springing up on all sides, and it now looks as if Ely would increase 100 per cent in population by the beginning of the year 1890.

Ely has the finest depot in St. Louis county, not excepting Duluth. Singular that a town one year old, having a population of about 1500, should have a finer railroad station than a city with 45,000 inhabitants.

Archie Chisholm, of the Chandler mine, should feel proud of the fact that in Tuesday's election received the honor of town clerk without a vote against him. The same might be said of Eugene Porrier, who had a unanimous support for assessor. Both are very popular and worthy of all they get.

Capt. John Pengilly will leave for a month's vacation in a few days and take the place of the senior.

Conductor Dodge, the oldest train official on the Iron Range road and one of the most faithful, said yesterday to a Herald reporter that during the present winter his train "was not delayed by snow once, and with the splendid engines of the Iron Range road, both passenger and freight, it would be almost impossible to stop us with any ordinary snowdrift. Yes, the winter is an improved paper, and deserves prosperity."

ELY'S ELECTION.

The Village Election at Ely Held Yesterday.

Ely, March 11.—[Special].—The regular village election was held yesterday. A full vote was polled. Officers elected were as follows: Alexander Lewson, president; E. J. Porrier, treasurer; A. M. Chisholm, recorder. The ticket gives the fullest satisfaction to voters, and as good as we could have. Treasurer Porrier is a son of C. Porrier, an old and respected citizen of Duluth.

THE OTHER SIDE OF THE STORY.

CLEVELAND, March 13.—[Special].—The movement to the rescue of the West and Northwest against the twin trade attracts considerable interest here, where one of the largest time factories in the United States is located. A liberal is given, however, to the statement that a trust exists, although it is admitted that something of the kind was attempted over a year ago. Prices are mainly regulated by the figures at the Philippine Islands, where the hemp is grown, and by the question of supply and demand. The trade circulars, moreover, show that prices have declined from 11 1/2 cents in 1887 to 10 1/2 in 1888. No advance is contemplated for the current year, but the manufacturers say it will be impossible to still further reduce the schedule and at the same time make a living profit.

TO "DOWN" THE TWINE TRUST.

DIA MORNE, Ia., March 13.—[Special].—Delegates from the Farmers' Alliance to Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri are holding a convention here today for the purpose of effecting an organization to down the alleged twine trust. They will probably determine not to use any twine this harvest unless it can be secured at a fair figure. In other words they will inaugurate a general boycott, by laying aside the self-hand, using the rate and binding by hand.

THE GERMAN PARLIAMENT.

BERLIN, March 13.—[Special].—The session of parliament which opened today will be one fraught in all probability with new terrors for the socialist element. The proposition of the government to abolish the special socialist law, and to bring them within the provisions of the penal code looks kind and charitable on its face, but as a matter of fact it places the socialist simply on the level of the ordinary criminal, and places him within the power of the police in regard to summary arrests, and as penalties to a greater extent than even the present law. The minor state of siege in Berlin, Hamburg and Leipzig will be abolished.

TO BEAUTIFY LIBERTY'S GRAVE.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 13.—[Special].—The senate committee on appropriations today took up the bill appropriating $50,000 for repairing the grave and monument of Abraham Lincoln. Quite a number of speakers, including ex-Governors Oglesby and Palmer will make arguments for a favorable report.

WILL PROBABLY DIE.

CHICAGO, March 13.—A dispatch from Coeur d'Alene City Idaho says: A brutal prize fight occurred here yesterday. Mr. John Morley, flower champion of the territory and John Kendall a pugilist from Chicago. Four rounds were fought and Kendall was so badly injured that he lost consciousness and has since been in a comatose condition. He will probably die. Flower is under arrest.

AN ARCHITECT TALKS.

Architect Cobb, of the Masonic Association, Gives Facts.

The Size, Shape and Capacity of the Projected Theater.

An Important Session of the Chamber of Commerce Today.

Oscar Cobb, the renowned theatrical architect who arrived in Duluth last night to confer with the Masonic Temple association, left this afternoon for Milwaukee where he goes to open bids for an elegant place of amusement which is to be built under his supervision.

Before leaving, Mr. Cobb gave to a Herald reporter a description of the ground plan and other matters of interest as finally and fully decided on by himself and the association. Said he: "We met last night, the Masonic theater people, and myself, and decided that the theater itself should occupy 70x132 feet, that is should be seventy feet on Second avenue east running from the alley down to Superior street and should be 132 feet deep along the alley. The Masonic block in which it is to be located, the temple proper, will occupy the space below the theater to Superior street, and seventy-five feet front on Superior street, leaving a space thirty-seven feet along Superior street east of the temple vacant. The walls of the two buildings will be one for sixty feet at the connection. Sixty feet from the avenue front, the building is a box, and will occupy building, making an open space at its rear.

"The theater will be what we term in Eastern parlance a full fledged theater; that is, it will have three tiers of galleries, with the boxes, stalls and all equipments of a modern opera house of the best description. It will seat 1800 or 2000 people. The theater building will be a double structure, the upper story, I believe the temple is to be higher, and it will be what we call completely and thoroughly fireproof. As to the outside plan, I have no idea marked out. In interior arrangement it will be entirely a style of its own, and will resemble the Columbus of Chicago more than any I think of. It will not be copied from any, however, and will have features distinctive of its own."

"Taking up the rear 14 feet of the 132 feet in depth of the ground plan will be dressing rooms, the stage will occupy the next 49 feet, being 46 x 67 feet, leaving the main audience room 90x90 feet interior. Of this a handsome foyer, and a considerable space next the avenue. The stage, 40x90 feet, will be big enough to accommodate any spectacular piece offered the country, and will be arranged with all modern appliances of drops, traps, etc. The entire block will cost about $200,000."

"I intend, if I build this theater, to show some new ideas in construction. The Duluth theater will be entirely a new model by the entire theatrical world. It will be an elegant building."

ABOUT THE BRIDGE BILL.

The Chamber of Commerce also Considers The Land Grant Measure.

A special meeting of the chamber of commerce was held this morning, in pursuance to a call by President Baldwin to consider some important communications. Ten members were present when the meeting was called to order. A communication from St. Paul was read, in regard to the canal bridge bill now before the legislature. The following resolutions were then given, and it was unanimously decided to send copies to our legislators in St. Paul.

"Whereas, In the judgment of the ablest legal authorities, aside from the opinion of the secretary of war, the state of Minnesota has plenary authority over all navigable waters lying entirely within its own limits, rendering it certain that any proper bridge built over the Minnesota Point canal would not be disapproved by the United States authorities, and as the citizens of Duluth have been struggling to reclaim Minnesota Point for mercantile purposes, therefore it is resolved that it is the deliberate judgment of this chamber that no bill pending in the United States should be passed by the United States authorities, and as the citizens of Duluth when we ask that the bill granting authority of the state to construct a bridge over the canal, having jurisdiction over said canal, be also passed by the house in its original form, without amendment or modification. And we respectfully ask our representatives to use their influence to secure the prompt passage of said bill."

A letter was then read from a Duluth property owner, now in St. Paul, who is interested in the passage of the Duluth & Winnipeg land grant bill, which comes up for discussion Friday morning. He writes: "We are rather dubious, considering the lack of interest which the Duluth public take in the land grant bill, as to its passing. I have seen several legislators who were weak in their opposition to the measure, and think I have successfully argued with them to look favorably upon it. We have got hard work to do to get the bill through, and every man, who has Duluth's interests at heart, should come and work for its passage."

It was the opinion of the people of Duluth when we ask that the bill granting authority of the state to construct a bridge over the canal, having jurisdiction over said canal, be also passed by the house in its original form, without amendment or modification. And we respectfully ask our representatives to use their influence to secure the prompt passage of said bill."

C. E. Dickinson came up from St. Paul this morning, but left for Iowa on the limited. He was here relative to property matters and the paving of Michigan street.

PARNELL'S CASE.

The case of the late Mr. Parnell, solicitor for the Times, testified that he had found that the local police of Cork believed Coffey, the Cork reporter, who testified yesterday that a statement he had made to a policeman was absolutely false. Coffey's signed statement was in Parnell's office and said he would testify that it was true. Coffey had not received the full sum to which he was entitled. Witness for the Times received from ten shillings to £3 a day. On cross examination by Mr. Sugan Mr. Seames testified that he sent Kirby to America to see Sheridan, who asked £20,000 to come to London and testify for the Times.

A man named Levy, who was a member of the Panian supreme council, testified as to his experiences while a member of that body. On cross-examination he admitted that he had been imprisoned for a year for embezzling his employer's money. This admission caused laughter. Attorney-General Webster then announced that the case for the Times was finished. At the request of Sir Charles Russell, counsel for the Parnellites, Presiding Justice Hansen ordered the release from prison of Mr. William O'Brien and Mr. Timothy Harrington, whom it is necessary for Sir Charles to consult, on condition that they abstained from agitation during their liberty. The court then adjourned until April 22.

Mellette and Richardson Confirmed. WASHINGTON, March 13.—The senate has confirmed the following nominations: G. C. Mellette, to be governor of Dakota, and L. B. Richardson to be secretary of Dakota; Cornelius H. Hanford, of Washington territory, to be chief justice of the supreme court of the Territory of Washington; George W. Irvin, of Montana, to be marshal of the United States for the Territory of Montana; Stanley N. Chambers, of Indiana, to be United States attorney for the District of Indiana; George S. Batcheller, of New York, to be assistant secretary of the treasury; vice Hugh A. Townsend, resigned; Albert G. Porter, of Indiana, to be minister of the United States to Denmark; Walker Blaine, of Maine, to be examiner of claims in the state department; Richard Root to be postmaster at Keokuk, Iowa.

Post's Haste.

CHICAGO, March 13.—A local paper says: Alfred Post who for a long time ran a freight claim bureau here, left Chicago February 16. He left a number of anxious acquaintances who have in vain tried to locate him. He is supposed to be in Mexico. He left ostensibly for the benefit of his health but some of his acquaintances claim he left to avoid trouble and that his freight bureau was nothing but a gigantic bubble. The deputy sheriff who leveled on some of Post's property to satisfy the judgment of his creditors is under the impression that his liabilities will reach the sum of $200,000.

Not Declined Yet.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—The statement was published this morning that ex-Senator Palmer had declined the nomination for the position of United States minister to Mexico, which was confirmed yesterday. A telephonic interview was had with his private secretary, Mr. Palmer himself being slightly indisposed, who stated the publication was wholly without authority.

Good-Bye, Kilrain.

NEW YORK, March 13.—Jake Kilrain, who is expected to fight John L. Sullivan, Mexican Indians and Americans have been working indiscriminately without aid from the government. With the military came Secretary Cota, representing the governor of the peninsula, with instructions to collect recording and denounce fees from every working mine that made announcement of business.

All miners workers must pay $250 to denounce a twenty-acre square claim, and after deciding to take permanent possession of the same to pay an additional $1500. Complaints went up from Americans and Mexicans alike. The miners wrote the governor. The governor replied that he could make no reduction, and on this account many new comers left and more expected to leave.

HE WENT.

AND SHE WENT ALSO, LIKEWISE Sundry Sums of Money. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., March 13.—John F. Cohn, the south side policeman, who resigned to escape a pending examination by the police commission, has mysteriously disappeared. The only thing about it is that Annie Peterson, the girl who was responsible for his resignation from the force, has also left the city. Annie has not been seen at the laundry on Fourteenth avenue and Washington, nor at her boarding house on Franklin avenue, since when he left the force. He was going to canvass for the Benevolent Endowment association. He left behind him a heart-broken wife and a large and anxious tailor bill. About this same time some $255 in the treasury of the Nora lodge K. P. also disappeared. Besides all this, the ex-policeman took with him about $125 that he had borrowed from friends on the force.

RAILROADS LOCALLY.

The Chicago division of the Wabash was sold yesterday under foreclosure proceedings in the United States court by Bluford Wilson, special commissioner, and was bid in by G. D. Ashley, of New York, representing the purchasing committee of the road, for $2,500,000.

President Oakes, of the Northern Pacific, returned from the West this afternoon. On March 15th, P. B. Ross, who has held the position of Northwestern traveling passenger agent of the Milwaukee & St. Paul road for some time, will sever his connection with that company and assume a similar position with the Kansas City company. E. B. McKuen, who has been traveling passenger agent of the Kansas City, with headquarters at St. Paul, will be transferred to Cincinnati. D. P. Frisbee, now city passenger agent for the Milwaukee at Minneapolis, will succeed to the position vacated by Mr. Ross.

THE DAY IN THE CITY.

The skating rinks have succumbed to the continued warm weather. Sheriff Sharvey has received an invitation to the Barrett double execution at Minneapolis, to take place on the 22nd inst. The Duluth & Iron Range business car went to St. Paul on the Duluth road last night to bring up a number of officials. A large number of men and teams returned from a winter's work in Robinson & Madison's camp near Two Harbors last night. A concert will be given this evening by the St. Paul lady quartet, assisted by the Duluth male quartet. Mrs. McKinley and Miss Stevenson. Work will soon begin on the extension of the county road system and a great deal of work will be carried out this year. The benefits of what was done last year are already apparent.

A SHOT AT THE PAPERS.

The Senate Concludes to Pay Only Regular Rates for Its Newspapers.

Senator Kellar's Elevator Bill and Senator Edwards's Medical Bill.

The Business Transacted in the Lower Branch This Morning.

ST. PAUL, March 13.—The question of charges for the newspapers furnished the senators was brought up at the opening of this morning's session through a resolution offered by Senator Bowers directing the secretary to pay all bills for newspapers at regular rates of subscription.

In explaining the resolution, Mr. Bowers said that the secretary was in doubt as to his duty in the matter. The bills presented aggregated over $2000, while at regular rates they would be reduced to about $1500. Some of the newspapers which were supplied to the public at 50 cents a month were charged to the state at $1.50, or five cents a copy. The papers which were making these charges were the loudest in their demands for reform, a seeming inconsistency. No one objected and the resolution was adopted.

A little breeze was raised over Senator Edwards's bill reducing the number of months per year in which medical students shall study in order to be entitled after three years to practice in the state. The present law names six months per year, while the amendment makes it five months. It was at once opposed by Senators Gibson and Wood, who are both doctors, and it was finally referred to them, along with Dr. Edwards.

It is claimed that the bill will give medical schools of an inferior order an undue advantage. Among the other bills of particular importance was one from Senator Kellar amending the grain and warehouse laws so as to make all elevators in which grain is so mixed or stored as to make the identification of different lots impossible, public warehouses.

In the house, Mr. Hay moved that the vote by which the capital punishment bill was lost be reconsidered, and the bill be again placed on general orders. The motion was carried.

Listening to General Employers.

ST. PAUL, March 13.—The house judiciary committee gave a hearing to sixty members of the Minnesota Railway Employees club last night. The bill to amend the law regulating common carriers and defining the duties of the railroad and warehouse commission was considered.

TAKING THE MINERS.

The Mexican Government Demands the Miners of Lower California.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., March 13.—The coming of soldiers into Lower California to protect the miners who have gone to the new mines seems to have brought trouble. Since the strike was made Mexican Indians and Americans have been working indiscriminately without aid from the government. With the military came Secretary Cota, representing the governor of the peninsula, with instructions to collect recording and denounce fees from every working mine that made announcement of business.

All miners workers must pay $250 to denounce a twenty-acre square claim, and after deciding to take permanent possession of the same to pay an additional $1500. Complaints went up from Americans and Mexicans alike. The miners wrote the governor. The governor replied that he could make no reduction, and on this account many new comers left and more expected to leave.

Presidential Nominations.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—The president today sent the following nominations to the senate: Eugene Schuyler of New York, to be assistant secretary of state, vice Geo. L. Rives, resigned; Walker Blaine of Maine, to be examiner of claims for the department of state, vice Francis Wharton, deceased; Cyrus Bussey of New York City, to be assistant secretary of interior, vice David L. Hawkins, resigned.

A FOUL DEED.

A Prominent Southern Journalist Shot Through the Heart.

CHARLESTON, S. C., March 13.—Capt. F. Dawson, of the News and Courier, was found dead in the office of Dr. McDow yesterday with a bullet hole through his heart. Dawson had suspected a domestic in his employ of sustaining improper relations with McDow, and the killing probably resulted from his confronting with McDow in regard to the matter.

CHARLESTON, S. C., March 13.—The murder of Capt. Dawson was the most brutal and atrocious ever committed in Charleston. The popular indignation is intense. All classes in the community stand against the assassin's act and would lynch the murderer if they could get him out of jail.

All the flags in the city are at half-mast, and telegrams of sympathy are pouring in from all parts of the country. The funeral will be held at the pro-Cathedral at 4 o'clock this afternoon. All civic and social bodies with which Captain Dawson was connected will attend. Bishop Northrup will conduct the funeral services.

MAKE HASTE SLOWLY.

There was a discussion of general interest in the senate yesterday, called out by the motion of Senator Payne to strike the select committee on relations with Canada from the list. This raised the question of the scope of the duties of this committee and the expediency of considering any broad plan of union of the United States and Canada at this time. The tone and practical sense of the debate were excellent. It was clearly recognized that any move at this time which could be construed as an effort to bring to the front the question of political union would be unwise. Such union, if it shall come at all, should follow as the powerful and logical outgrowth of the considerations that make for the federal unity of the present political divisions of North America.

No thoughtful American can desire to anticipate this growth, and certainly not to force its conclusion. For anyone who studies the situation must see that such an attempt will lead to ill feeling, distrust and estrangement, that will make our relations needlessly unpleasant and cloud the sober judgment that is so essential. To hurry the approach to union will inevitably delay it, for no considerable body of men in this country thinks for a moment of forcible annexation, and this should be fully understood in the Dominion and Great Britain. As Senator Edmunds well says, our first thought should be to fuse our own unassimilated elements before undertaking new responsibilities, and the nearer the two countries approach each other in sympathy and aim the more ready and perfect will be their ultimate union.

We believe that such union is the logical issue of the geographical and social situation, and it should be considered solely from the standpoint of pure reason. Vaulting ambition and the transmitted bitterness of rivalries and wrongs, real and supposed, should be barred out as far as possible. The relative advantage of any union is, at present, chiefly on the side of the Dominion and this should be distinctly recognized both here and abroad. When the people of the Dominion as a body desire to consider the feasibility of union from a common sense standpoint, the United States will be ready to open the question but not till then. When that day comes, union will probably come with the concord of judgment in Great Britain, Canada and our own country.

A very considerable gain is shown in the return of the new liberal member for the Barnsley division of Yorkshire. It is significant that this gain is the apparent result of a conversion of opinion, for the vote for the conservative candidate shows a corresponding falling off from that of the previous election. The Home Rule party is now clearly on the flood tide and the opposition is ebbing fast.

General satisfaction is expressed with the nomination of Arthur C. Mellette as governor of Dakota. He would be without doubt the choice of the territory as a body, and will be the next governor of the territory, and the first governor of the state of South Dakota. The president has done well in accepting the choice of the people as the guide for his selection.

As soon as practicable plain and neat signs marking the avenues and streets should be put on the corners. To old residents the city may be an open book, but the business agents and travelers coming to the city daily in increasing numbers feel the lack of such guides and complain, justly. We understand that the need is admitted and the method of marking is allowed to be decided. We hope it will be determined without delay and carried into effect.

Probably a number of persons were disappointed the other day when President Harrison left a roomful of people who wanted to shake hands with him and went to attend to business, but the action, and the accompanying announcement that he could not give his time and strength to the "pump-handle" process, will commend itself to the good sense of everybody. If it is necessary that all visitors to the White House shake hands, a person could be employed for that purpose at less than $50,000 per year.

The government agents of the interior department have completed their examination of the Ashland lumber district, undertaken to determine if spoliation of the Indians had been going on, as has been vociferously charged, and have come to the same conclusion arrived at after their careful investigation in this district—that the charges made against lumber operators and officials are baseless. It appears that there was very little milk in this cocoanut.

The nonsense that is wired to appreciative democratic papers about a rising conflict between Blaine and Harrison could have been furnished to order as well in the home offices. The wish is father to the dispatch as everybody knows. Both President Harrison and Mr. Blaine are too well trained in the school of the politician to let any disagreement come to the surface for correspondence to peep at, if any existed, and there is not the faintest shadow of proof that any exists. The two men know each other well and have some enough to keep from clashing—even if there was occasion for it. Here there is none. Mr. Harrison is president and Mr. Blaine is secretary of state. Both understand this and that is enough. But enough is not enough for the papers that must have sensations at any price. So they will keep on printing rubbish whether any one heeds it or not.

Boston is getting another financial squeeze because of the decline in copper stocks, and the press of that city begins to show signs of sensitiveness. In an editorial headed "Still Solvent" the Boston Herald the other day remarked with some severity: "Boston is able to take care of herself financially now, and she expects to be for some time in the future." This is undoubtedly true, and all who are lying awake nights on Boston's account may go to sleep again.

The New York Herald has been trying to find out who would be the coming leader of the democratic party, and as far as had poor success. In New York state rather more than a third of the democrats interviewed declare for Hill, but there are considerable factions for Cleveland, Randall and Whitney and a third have no choice at present. The democratic members in the national senate and house are still more divided and uncertain. There is only one really significant return. Hon. Roger Q. Mills gets one vote out of 151. That measures the present confidence in the political use of another free trade crusader. Mr. Mills has had his day—and it was a black day for the bragging free traders.

A Deserved Compliment. One of the last acts of the house of representatives at Bismarck was to tender to Col. C. A. Lounsbury a vote of thanks. The following is from the minutes of the house: Resolved, That the thanks of the house are hereby tendered to Col. C. A. Lounsbury, for his able and efficient service as a member of the house, and for his faithful and just reports of the proceedings of the house, and for his courteous and gentlemanly treatment of the members by him. Which motion was adopted.

Not So Bad, After All. Mandan Pioneer: Not that the legislature has adjourned, and that it is possible to view dispassionately the acts of the members and the governor, it must be confessed that the governor has a good part of the time acquitted himself with dignity and consistency which is expected of a governor.

Don't Object to Interviews. Senator Washburn: Interviews are not objectionable to me when I am quoted correctly, but I have recently been considerably annoyed by a series of misrepresentations, and especially in the Chicago papers.

His Defense. Prisoner—I am not guilty of the crime charged, your honor. At the time the man was robbed I was in my bedroom taking care of the baby.

Counsel—Yes, your honor, these are the facts. We can prove a liability.

He Will Carry it Out. Minneapolis Tribune: Somebody asks if President Harrison will carry out Cleveland's civil service work. We think he will—carry it out and dump it in the ash barrel.

In Need of Correction. Minneapolis Journal: If the Minnesota delegation to the St. Louis convention continue to act at St. Louis as they did before they started, it would be wise for the governor to call them all home and give them a spanking.

A Fair Compromise. Pioneer Press: The re-appointment bill which has been prepared is not a scientific one, and it will be objected to in many parts of the state as unfair. Yet it is, on the whole, probably the best that could be done, and ought to be accepted as a fair compromise.

Ought to Cope With Them. Pioneer Press: White Caps have lately been torturing a man in Dakota. A territory that can break the Union against the combined opposition of the democrats should be able to cope successfully with any meanness group of White Caps.

A Meek and Lowly Fellow. The apostolic character of the New York Mail and Express extends to the advertising columns. A recent advertisement for an intelligent, well bred, accomplished woman, above all a meek and lowly follower of her Master, and willing to dine with the servants.

Moist Minnesota. Secretary Windom: Minnesotans are always modest, and I have had a forcible demonstration of that fact, growing out of the visit of the congressional delegation from the North Star state. In the party were Senators Davis and Washburn and Representatives Spider Lind, Constock and Dunnell, and during their stay in my room the subject of one office for a constituent was never broached.

Sweet by the Title of Popularity. To the topmost pinnacle of success, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters stands a shining proof of what genuine merit, backed by the living force of proven facts, can attain. The North and South American continents, Europe, Australia, the West Indies, Guatemala and Mexico have all contributed wide patronage and testimony of the most favorable kind—but unsolicited—to swell the reputation of this sterling remedy. Among the maladies for which the most convincing public and professional testimony proves that it is a benign curative, are chills and fever, biliousness, constipation, indigestion, nervousness, debility, kidney and liver complaints. It mitigates the ailments of age, hastens convalescence, has a tendency to prevent ill consequences from exposure and exhaustion. Persons of a sedentary habit and laborious occupations will find it an ever useful tonic.

MORSELS OF GASTRONOMY. Among the unsophisticated, red-heads are successfully served as canvassers.

Apples, being acid, are now recommended, not as a "sure cure" but as a healthful food. Batter is the ruin of fried oysters in ten out of a dozen hotels and restaurants. Lettuce and cheese as a dinner course is having a great run. Preservers put up by the Shakers are put down by people who know what is clean and good in vast, and yearly increasing quantities. Alphabetical ice-cream is new. The cream is served in small different-colored blocks, on each of which is stamped one of the letters from A to Z.

With the French, the man who does not have boiled turnips with boiled mutton is worse than an infidel.

WHAT TO TEACH YOUR DAUGHTER. Teach her that 100 cents make $1. Teach her how to arrange the parlor. Teach her to say "no," and mean it; and "yes," and stick to it. Teach her how to wear a calico dress and do it like a queen. Teach her how to sew on buttons, darn stockings and mend gloves. Teach her to dress for comfort and health as well as appearance. Teach her to make her sleeping room the neatest room in the house. Teach her that tight lacing is unbecomely as well as very injurious to the health. Teach her how to cultivate flowers and make and keep the kitchen garden. Teach her to regard morals and habits and not money in selecting her associates. Teach her to observe the old rule, "A place for everything and everything in its place."

Teach her the important truth that the more she lives within her income the more she will save, and the further she will get away from the poor house. Teach her that a good, steady, church-going mechanic, farmer, clerk or teacher will be a better husband than a young loafer or non-producer in broadcloth. Teach her to be a good mother. Match sales are made of gold, silver and copper in odd designs. It is proper now to carry stamp boxes, pen cases, and plaster cases made of silver.

The old-fashioned English gold signet ring is being revived. Solitaire sleeves buttons made of platinum and gold, set with rubies, are much worn. During the daytime heavy double chains are still popular. Trousers are now being cut of medium width. The favorite shades of derby hats are tan and tobacco colors. Spring suits will be made of plaid and small checks and stripes. Four-in-hand scarfs still hold their own as a medium in popularity. Square pointed neck cuffs are the correct style for evening dress. Double-breasted evening vests are being worn and embroidered trousers have many admirers. Plain and engine-turned gold-cord hunting watches are now fashionable. For evening dress three small diamond studs are worn by a few. The solitaire stud is the more correct style.

FRESH FOREIGN WAIFS. It looks as if the London Times would have to "pay the freight." The Duke of Newcastle has a sweet bride, for her name happens to be Candy. It is feared there may be violent demonstration in Paris the day the expedition opens. Holland's King, who is now passing away, is an affable and much-beloved monarch. Those who discuss the royal scandal in public in Vienna are quickly taken to jail. Bonlangier's colored boy-servant in Paris is made quite a lion of when seen in the street. Rascals of British noblemen are courts every few days. All through the business parts of London are now to be noted American mercantile signs. All the Paris bands are to combine for the great open air concerts during the exposition nights. Oscar Wilde is no longer eccentric or long-haired, and looks like any other man who is sorry for having made a fool of himself. Countess Walderslee, nee Lee, of New York, is said to be very gracious to all of her country people whom she knows, when they arrive in Berlin. Dainty Parisian swells smoke cigar by means of a gold wire fastened over their gloves to the little finger of the right hand, the cigarette held by a tiny clasp. Nearly 3,500 patents have been granted to women. A stewardess is a new feature of east and west Pullman "limited" travel. Miss A. M. Beecher, M. D., a cousin of Henry Ward Beecher, is a practicing physician. A "Medical Aid Society for Self-Supporting Women" has opened rooms in Philadelphia. Mme. Andre left her jewels, valued at $200,000, as a bequest for building shelter for the homeless poor in Paris. Miss Hattie Carter, of Kenosha county, Kansas, has won several prizes at lancing in competition with cowboys. Mrs. Agnes Ethel Tracy, formerly a noted actress, has given a clergy-house to St. John's Episcopal church, Buffalo, N. Y.

SEEN AND HEARD.

"I don't like the way those newspaper humorists treat us," said a well-known Duluth barber, as he gave the few finishing touches to his razor, before shaving a customer. "To read the papers one would think that a barber did nothing but talk while shaving a patron. It's a shame. A man can't talk and shave at the same time. It's an impossibility. Say, what do you think of Harrison's razor? It's a daisy, isn't it? As I was saying, it's a base libel to say barbers talk all the time. 'Not they sleep sometimes?' but had pretty good. That's one on me. Well, if—razor hurt you? If Blaine don't get at Bismarck pretty quick I think he's as bad as a customer. ## LOGGERS FEEL BETTER

And If the Cold Weather Keeps on a Week Will Be Jubilant.

The Shortage Reduced Considerably From the Previous Estimates.

The cold wave that hoisted late last night, was a joyful signal to the lumbermen, the most sanguine of whom had about given up hope of cool weather and a cut anywhere near full. As yet all snow has not disappeared in all parts of the district and a few days, a week at least, of continued cold weather will help the loggers very materially. While two weeks ago a shortage in the cut of fully 35, or even 40 per cent, was looked for, it is not now probable that this shortage will amount to over 20 or 25 per cent at the outside and may be even less than these figures. So that instead of there being a shortage in the cut of 200,000 or 300,000,000 feet in the entire Duluth district it will not be more than 30,000,000 feet. When it is taken into account the amount of logs held over for mills at Duluth proper this shortage will not have serious effect.

But it will come more seriously on the lumbermen and companies operating on the Cloquet and St. Louis rivers, and at Northern Pacific Junction. The loggers on the reservation, which compelled loggers to get away and put up camps elsewhere, followed by resumption of work after a resumption of the order, lost the contractors two weeks of very valuable time, especially considering the fact that work began so late as it did. This was a bad matter, and when followed by warm weather and a stoppage of work, the loggers were made it worse. All along the upper rivers the camps have been partly emptied of men in the last week. It is stated this morning that the C. N. Nelson company is sending back to their camps most of the men who have come out in the hope that operations may be continued a few weeks longer at least, and indications now are that another week of hauling may result. Should it not, the big mills at Cloquet will be run at low pressure this season and will not get out anything like the quantity of lumber they can when sawing with full supply.

Considerable May wheat changed hands at cash prices, and the other futures were very dull.

The last hour was very quiet, with scarcely anything doing. The close was firmer, with 5c advance in the market.

OFFICES FOR THIS STATE.

Number of Minnesota Office Seekers Small, But Well Satisfied.

Who the Men are and What Their Probability of Success Now it.

News of the Day From the Nation's Capital, Fresh on the Wire.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—It is to the credit of Minnesota that the number of office seekers from that state actually in Washington pushing their claims in person is relatively very small. Perhaps this is why so many of those who are here are going away pretty well satisfied with their prospects.

Mr. Wildt, of Faribault, is about ready to go home in serene confidence that when the time comes he will be nominated for collector of internal revenue. He believes that he has the support of the entire delegation, and thinks that he is good enough for him. Gertsen, of Minneapolis, candidate for the consul general at Calcutta, is equally confident. He claims the support of the entire delegation and expects his name to go to the senate any day. In the ordinary course of events consulates in the British empire will yield and the office go to Hay, but Gertsen has been led to believe that his name would be sent to the senate today. The office of district attorney will not be filled until after the adjournment of the senate, as the delegation is not completely agreed upon the name to be recommended to the president. The leading candidates are Eugene Hay and Walter Stevenson. In his case, the latter has an understanding which ultimately be reached by which Stevenson's supporters will yield and the office go to Hay, who is credited with distinguished services in the last senatorial campaign. There seems to be no serious opposition to G. C. Edwards for collector of customs, and his nomination is expected at an early day. There is no reason for delay in his case, as the death of Dr. Guernon leaves the office vacant.

It is not believed that any other Minnesota appointment will be made immediately. The truth is that the president's requirement that applicants for office should be endorsed by the whole delegation has been a state to which the applicant was credited has made a little trouble in Minnesota as well as in other delegations. It certainly comes itself to the republican members of the house, but it is not as serious as it seems to those who were accustomed, under the old system, to parcel out certain offices without consulting the representatives.

The Minnesota delegation has held only one meeting, though, though friendly and good-natured, was not entirely harmonious. The proposition was made on the part of the members that the senators should control the office pertaining to their respective districts, but that all should unite in the recommending to such foreign and department places as might be made by the senate. The senators are said to have demurred to this division of their traditional prerogative, and reference may lead to some delay in the filling of the offices of this class. Gertsen is all right, as he has the endorsement of senators and representatives both, but there are other candidates for consulates and department places not so fortunate. W. D. Estes thinks he would like to brave the fever at Panama, and Dr. Leonard wants one of the British consulates, Birmingham or Sheffield.

THE LABOR BUREAU.
Who Will President Harrison Appoint for His Head?

WASHINGTON, March 14.—[Special.]—Although General Secretary W. A. Martin, of the Amalgamated Society of Iron and Steel Workers, who is after the position of commissioner of the National Labor Bureau, claimed to have received the endorsement of all the various labor organizations in the United States, and is inclined to the opinion that he has a fair chance of being chosen, it is believed that he will find his claims antagonized in other quarters.

It is stated on pretty good authority that if there is one man more than another that President Harrison would like to see filling that important position that man is John Barrett. Said a republican senator today: "John Barrett's political services to the republican party, as well as his zeal in the advocacy of protective principles, have been of the greatest value, and if his inclinations go that way I think he should have the first offer of the position."

Presidential Nominations.
WASHINGTON, March 14.—The President sent the following nominations to the senate today: James S. Clarkson, of Iowa to be first assistant postmaster general, vice A. E. Stevenson resigned; Lewis Wolley, of Tucson, Arizona to be governor of Arizona; Rathbone Gardner, of Rhode Island to be United States marshal for the district of Rhode Island; Mr. L. Dunlap, of Indiana to be United States marshal for the district of Indiana; Postmaster—Robert S. Bowman, of Alameda, Cal.; Samuel C. Moore, of Philadelphia, Ohio; Joseph C. Bartlett, at Lake City, Minn.; James V. Campbell at Ada, Minn.; Wm. Wallace, at Indianapolis, Ind.; James M. Kellogg at Wilkes, Mont.; John J. Cutler, at Parker, Dak.; Wm. S. Chase, at Sturgis, Dak.; Jettell O. Walters, Minot, Dak.; Jeremiah Sullivan, of Montana, to be collector of customs for the district of Montana and Idaho; John A. Keason, of Iowa, William Walter Phelps, of New Jersey, and George H. Bates, of Delaware to be commissioners to represent the United States at the conference to be held in Berlin concerning affairs in the Samoan island. A. J. Reed, of Montana, to be United States attorney for Montana. J. S. Clarkson's nomination was confirmed.

Work of the Senate.
WASHINGTON, March 14.—For some minutes after the reading of yesterday's journal the senate sat without any business being brought before it. Then a resolution was introduced by Mr. Edwards, of Montana, to be United States attorney for Montana. J. S. Clarkson's nomination was confirmed.

BOILER BATTERY BURSTS.

Pittsburg Workmen Killed and Maimed by Explosion of Boilers.

List of the Dead and Wounded Taken From the Ruins of the Mill.

Speculations and Theories Regarding the Cause of the Disaster.

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 14.—A battery of boilers at the West Point boiler works of R. Morse & Sons, on the corner of Twenty-third and Smallman streets, exploded shortly after 12 o'clock this afternoon, completely wrecking the plant, and burying a number of the men in the ruins.

Four have been taken out dead, and three badly injured, and there are still a number in the ruins. A dozen others were quite seriously injured, many of them it is thought fatally.

The names of the dead already removed from the wreck are:

ARCHIE LAMMINGTON, engineer, freightfully mutilated; single, resided on Howard street, Allegheny.

CHAS. ALLENBACH, laborer, head and body killed.

DANIEL CLARK, boiler maker, mangled and scalded.

JOHN REMEMMER, boiler maker, badly scalded.

MARY CONNORS and one other were taken from the ruins alive. Howard, however, it is thought will die before he reaches the hospital.

The names of the other injured are not yet known. The explosion occurred just after the noon whistle had sounded, and many of the workmen had left the works to get their dinner. The concussion shook buildings for several squares. In a few minutes a large crowd had gathered about the wreck, and the scene was most agonizing. Wives, mothers and children ran about wringing their hands and crying, eagerly searching for their loved ones. The first body removed was that of the Engineer Lammington. He was almost unrecognizable. Allenbach remained next taken out and in a few minutes the mangled body of Clark was found. Rememmer, Connors and an unknown were next removed. The work of rescuing is going on vigorously, but at 2 o'clock no more bodies had been recovered.

At 2 o'clock the body of James Carlton, a helper, aged about 22 years and unmarried, was taken out making five dead removed from the ruins.

Martin Connors, who was also so terribly scalded that he will die, is 24 years of age and unmarried. He came to this city a short time ago from Baltimore. The name of the most seriously injured are:

John Forest, a helper, aged 20 years; Harvey Barr, a helper, aged 25 years; Frank Waneke, Wm. Kelly, John Barber and James Cartney, boiler makers. Cartney was recently married. The others are single men.

The boilers were inspected six months ago and were thought to be in first-class condition. The real cause of the explosion will probably never be known, as the engineer was killed outright and no one else has been found who was in the engine room at the time the disaster took place.

To Testify Against Lives and Staynor.
NEW YORK, March 14.—[Special.]—The fact has developed that the return of Charles Phillips, the president of the defunct Columbia Bank, of Philadelphia, who fled to Paris when the affair collapsed, is due to the promise that immunity from arrest has been ensured him in order that he might testify against lives and Staynor.

Gloucester, Mass., March 14.—Reports from New Foundland say that the issue of licenses to American vessels for the purchase of bait and other necessary outfit will be refused this season, and that the government will coincide with the Dominion government in its policy. The reason alleged is that American vessels last season violated the license given them, and bait purchased in New Foundland was sold to the French at St. Pierre.

Starved to Death.
PUENCE ALBERT, N. W. T., March 14.—News has reached this point that two trappers, brothers, named Pinlay and Hunt, who were hunting for furs, had starved to death. They took provisions and a trading outfit with the intention of remaining all winter trading in that region. After getting settled they started for the Hudson Bay company's post, 200 miles further north, and at the other end of the lake nothing was heard or seen of them until their dead bodies were found by a trapper about two miles from their camp a few days ago.

Brought in Two Thugs.
MINNEAPOLIS, March 14.—Superintendent of Police Brackett and Detective Lawrence, having in custody Harry ains "Reddy" Hackett and Ed Kennedy, the two thugs charged with murdering assaulting Policeman Pat McLaughlin while in discharge of his duty on March 1st at Washington and Sixth avenues, arrived at the union depot on the 8:30 A.M. train this morning. The prisoners were immediately taken to the central station and looked up in separate cells. They will be arraigned in the municipal court tomorrow.

No Basis For the Sensational Rumor About the Nile.

ACKLAND, March 14.—Advises just received from Suva show that there was no basis for the sensational rumor of an engagement between the United States man-of-war Niagara and the German corvette Olga. Far from this, the German officials on the island have entirely given up their aggressive policy, the proclamation of martial law has been publicly withdrawn and the Germans have abandoned all claim to the right of searching incoming vessels for contraband of war.

Both these steps have met with the hearty approval of all foreign residents at Suva, and have had a quieting effect. Unusual tranquility prevails throughout the island. Matsua however, has a force of troops estimated to be 6000 strong. Tamassee's army consists of about 700 men. The men of war, German, English and American, still remain at Apia, ready for any emergency that may arise.

BIG SUBSIDIES.
Steamers From Vancouver to China, Japan and Australia to Get a Fat Pina.

NEW YORK, March 14.—A London cable dispatch says: The Canadian Gazette publishes details regarding the new rail subsidies which the dominion government has decided to secure. The service proposed is quite equal to the New York service. The annual subsidy is $100,000 for ten years. The British and dominion governments will join in subsidizing a fortnightly service from Vancouver to China and Japan. Australia and New Zealand will also subsidize this service in order to secure its extension to Australian ports. The aggregate subsidies for the Atlantic and Pacific service will be $250,000 per annum. It is proposed to form an independent company.

Two Convicts Captured.
ASHLAND, March 14.—[Special.]—Two of the prisoners who escaped from the Ashland jail Tuesday night, were captured this morning at Hurley. The police expect to cage the others soon, as their whereabouts are known.

The A. Booth Company.
C. W. Turner, general western manager and V. Booth, one of the proprietors of the A. Booth Packing company arrived in Duluth this morning. They are here to look out for the business of this firm for the coming year and will probably among other things, make contracts for the fish and settle on a price to be paid for the fish.

The company expects to handle more fish at Duluth this year than ever before, and will do a very large business. The company now has a large amount of frozen fish on hand, the wara weather the winter having hurt the sale of fish as of everything else, but the Lenten season will see the stock cleaned out.

The Booth Company handles more fish at Duluth than the local shipments of all other Lake Superior ports combined, so Duluth may well be called the fisherman's headquarters.

Mounded the Ladder of Fate.
CHICAGO, March 14.—[Special.]—Rev. Father Dorney has mounted the ladder of fate three steps at a time since the death of his wife. The funeral was held at the house of the bereaved at 10 o'clock this morning. The coffin contained the Egan-Sullivan evidence of the death of the late Mrs. Dorney. The Times-Picayune editors. Hardly a day passes but he is the recipient of an invitation to lecture or address mass meetings in one part of the country or another, and there is no doubt that he will devote himself to the platform for a while the results financially will be extremely gratifying either to himself or the Land League cause. The reverend gentleman, however, while an ardent supporter of Irish freedom, is still more devoted to the cause of his mother church, and while he may occasionally be heard upon the platform he is not likely to leave the pulpit.

Remarkable Endowment.
CHICAGO, March 14.—[Special.]—Reports received by the Union League club committee, which has in charge a general observation of the inaugural celebration next month, indicate a remarkable manifestation of interest and enthusiasm in the movement. All of the leading towns of the West and North, including Milwaukee, Minneapolis, St. Paul and Des Moines, are moving in the matter of big meetings and monster demonstrations, and it is believed that every hamlet and village will fall into line to make the observance a universal one.

Hotel Burned.
SAVANNAH, Ga., March 14.—The Gulf house at Thornville was burned last night. The guests escaped. The building was insured for $5000 and the furniture for $3000. This lacks several thousand dollars of covering the loss. The hotel was also a well known railroad eating house.

Monument to Dr. Priestly.
PHILADELPHIA, March 14.—[Special.]—A monument in memory of the celebrated philosopher and historian Joseph Priestly, was dedicated at the First Unitarian church last night in the presence of a large audience. The oration was delivered by Dr. C. C. Everett, of Harvard University.

Steps Into Mr. Morton's Place.
CHICAGO, March 14.—The stockholders of the Illinois Central railroad company reconvened this morning and elected Mr. E. M. Ducrest, of New York, to fill the vacancy in the board of directors caused by the resignation of Levi P. Morton, vice president of the United States.

OBJECT TO A BEEF BILL.

Duluth Butchers Strenuous in Objections to the Scheffer Bill.

Feeling that it is a Boom for the St. Paul Stock Yards.

They Will Use Every Endeavor and Hope to See it Soon Killed.

The Scheffer dressed beef bill, which provides that all cattle consumed in Minnesota shall be subject to inspection in this state, in other words shall be killed in this state, is most heartily hated by Duluth butchers and importers of meat. They have already taken formal action protesting against the bill and have sent their protest to St. Paul, as the telegraph columns of the Herald indicated to us yesterday. That there is a "nigger in the fence" somewhere is evident, and the exact location of the nigger is known to be at the South St. Paul stockyards. Local dealers, wholesale and retail, and the meat trade, is of such importance here that hundreds of thousands of dollars of capital are invested in the wholesale branch alone, state unequivocally that the scheme for state slaughtering of all beef is solely in the interests of the railroad and slaughtering interests centered at South St. Paul, where a vain endeavor to build up a big slaughtering business has been made for the past year or two.

Said one big dealer who handles thousands of tons of dressed beef annually, some of which is slaughtered in the state, but the great bulk comes from Chicago: "Not one-tenth of the beef used in this state is killed here; some of it is shipped out and brought back after being killed, but not much. The South St. Paul stockyards claim they will be received if the law is not made. It doesn't make much difference to us whether the people of the state whether their real estate scheme at South St. Paul lives or dies, but it does make a tremendous difference to us as to whether beef goes up five cents a pound to the consumer, as will be the case if the bill is passed. This is true because there would be no competition of the butchers with Chicago dressed beef in selling and they could put their prices where they chose in any town."

Said another: "It would result in the regulation of all surrounding states which would ruin the best and our agricultural interests. If Minnesota can prohibit the sale of any meat not inspected on the hoof in this state, ostensibly to prevent the sale of diseased meat, then every state in the Union can prohibit the sale of any food not made from wheat inspected in that state to prevent the spreading of dirt with the wheat. The fact is that the beef does nothing. It exceeds farmer-killed cattle, and the most dangerous meats are those brought in by farmers, whose action and business are unknown. The least danger is from those who do the largest business, and whose business demands that their output be the best, otherwise their business fails. Nineteen of our meat is brought in dressed from Chicago, Kansas City and Sioux City."

"It is against all principles of economic trade," said another. "Now railroads get haulage on the dressed beef only then they would on the gross weight, and the consumer would pay extra. It would not help the farmer, for it would give the market with Montana live cattle."

THE VERMILION RANGE.
News of Interest From the Great Northern Iron District.

TOWER, March 14.—Dr. Barrett arrives home tonight from his inauguration trip, but leaves his wife and family at his home in Pennsylvania. He has the sympathy of many friends over the death of his father, which occurred during his absence. The Tower Journal, under the headline of his absence by Henry Nelson, the foreman.

Mayor Lawson is the title now assumed by the local postmaster at Ely. He won a lively battle, defeating an excellent man, and is receiving congratulations.

Frank Brown, of Michigamme, Mich., was visiting Ely and Tower yesterday.

Postmaster Benson has not appointed an assistant as yet since Mr. Brubacher resigned. The absence of Mr. Benson makes it an impossibility for Mr. Benson to get along without help.

Steps are being taken to place a few varieties of fish in Vermilion lakes and rivers. The United States Fish establishment, at Duluth will assume charge of the matter at the urgent request of the Tower Business association.

Frank Murray is being mentioned as an aldermanic candidate. He is a member of the Howe Lumber company and would fill the office acceptably.

John Hightley of Tower was in Duluth yesterday on land business, and gained his point.

Ex-Mayor Bassett, of Tower, visited the eastern part of the Vermilion during the week. He is now in Duluth.

Will James, the Ely merchant, has returned from his trip to the Gobeck.

It looks now as if trouble would prevail in the ranks of the squatters on the Eaton & Merritt property. They say that ten parties have built houses on the land.

The corrected list of candidates is as follows: W. N. Shepherd and Chas. McNamara for mayor; Dan. McDonald, Geo. S. West, Owen Jones and Nels Benson for recorder; Chas. Appel for treasurer. The aldermanic candidates are in the dozens.

Heaven Leading Opposition.
The state senate committee on public lands met Tuesday night to consider the Winnipeg land grant bill. The introduction similar to that presented the house, and which succeeded in giving the road its grant by a big majority. Senator Buckman is leading the fight for the bill in the senate, while Senator Bowen is preparing himself for as vigorous an onslaught upon it as he can make two years ago against H. P. 157. The tussle is going to be a severe one and is bound to result in a contest as has been the case for years.

RE-APPORTIONMENT PLAN

Speaker Graves and Senator Whiteman Present a Plan for This District.

Which is Not Approved by Busy Mr. Knox of Aitken.

St. Paul, March 14. [Special.] Senator Whiteman and Speaker Graves agreed upon a plan of re-apportionment yesterday, for the present Forty-sixth district and have submitted it to the clerk of the committee. Their plan is based upon the allowance of two senators and four representatives to the present district. The vote of 1888 for president in the Forty-sixth district was 11,724, and this is used as a basis of division. The senatorial district of two representatives each are as follows: the vote of each county being given:

Counties	Votes
Aitken	2,782
Cass	2,782
Carlton	2,782
Hubbard	2,782
Itasca	2,782
St. Louis	2,782
Stearns	2,782
Wadena	2,782
Wells	2,782
Wright	2,782
Duluth	2,782
Total	27,820

The other district is as follows:

Counties	Votes
Duluth	2,782
St. Louis	2,782
Stearns	2,782
Wadena	2,782
Wells	2,782
Wright	2,782
Duluth	2,782
Total	27,820

The two senatorial districts are then divided into representative districts as follows:

The First, Third and Fourth wards of Duluth, and Park Point township with a total vote of 3,654.

The Second ward of Duluth, town of Duluth, towns of Canby, Rice Lake, Green, Breitung, Morse in St. Louis county, Lake and Cook counties with a vote of 2,945.

The Fifth and Sixth wards of Duluth and balance of St. Louis county with Carlton county, with a vote of 2,145.

The counties of Aitken, Cass, Itasca, Hubbard and Wadena with a vote of 2,782.

The above is the arrangement decided upon by Speaker Graves and Senator Whiteman, and as they are the controlling power, it will be pretty apt to go through. St. Paul for the last few days, and he is strongly opposed to the plan proposed. He offers to have one senatorial district composed of Aitken, Carlton, Cass, Hubbard, Itasca and Wadena counties, giving it one senator and one representative, and allowing St. Louis, Lake and Cook counties to have one senator and three representatives. The first named district would have 4,222 votes and the latter 7,442 votes.

Mr. Knox claims that the city of Duluth is growing westward and that the divisions first proposed would give that city a practical control of the district. He thinks that it would be better for the balance of the district to be cut off from the city of Duluth, and that by combination with some other county, would be able to control the west district by number of votes, would control the east district in its corporate limits. While Mr. Knox is making his objections it is more than probable that first scheme given in detail above will be adopted by the Duluth delegation, the committee and the legislature.

Mr. Knox was very busy yesterday, and unless Messrs. Graves and Whiteman are alert he may have their scheme amended so as to suit him. He succeeded yesterday in having the drafting of the bill stopped until a hearing could be had, and it is learned that at least a majority of the committee are in favor of the division proposed by Mr. Knox, and were of the opinion that it is better to let the bill be done to the country seat of Duluth to attach it to Duluth, in a senatorial district. It would not be surprising to see a report of that kind notwithstanding the fact that both Mr. Whiteman and Mr. Graves think as a unit in the matter. Should the bill be reported to the house as agreed to by the Duluth representatives, Speaker Graves' popularity may carry it through, but it would be almost sure to meet defeat in the senate. There are a number of members who would very quickly make the Duluth division a basis of opposition, and the remarks heard in the legislature yesterday were of that kind that indicated a hostility to Mr. Whiteman's method.

Chairman Constock, of the committee, says he will present a bill tomorrow whether the committee agrees or not, and that they can fix things up afterwards.

The Forty-sixth district is not the only one where an interesting fight is taking place. The Thirty-ninth and Fortieth districts are in a little time that may create a rupture among friends before it is settled. The Thirty-ninth is composed of Todd, Crow Wing, Morrison, Miller and Benton counties. The Fortieth is Stearns county. It was first proposed to attach Benton to Stearns, Miller and Todd to Benton, and Anoka and leave the other three counties in one district. This was satisfactory to all concerned for awhile, but yesterday Mr. Chapman of Stearns, registered a kick against having Benton attached to Stearns. Bob Dunn said he did not want to have Miller and Todd go with Anoka and leave the other three counties in one district. The other districts would make two solid republican districts. The old Thirty-ninth would be divided into two, one with Anoka and Benton, and the other with Todd, Crow Wing and Morrison. The old Fortieth would be divided into two, one with Benton and Morrison, and the other with Todd, Crow Wing and Miller.

The feature of the new apportionment which will be an improvement in the Benview county, now known as the Forty-seventh district, will follow along with other counties in regular order. Benview came very near being overlooked at the last apportionment.

ENJOYABLE CONCERT.

St. Paul Lady Quartette at the First Methodist Church.

The concert by the St. Paul Lady Quartette at the First Methodist church last evening was enjoyed by a moderate-sized, but thoroughly appreciative audience. The programme included several numbers from classical authors, which were admirably calculated to test the talent and training of the quartette somewhat severely, and the test was worthily met. Every number was enjoyed and the ladies responded with the utmost good nature, the demands of the audience, giving ballads and familiar folk songs when recalled.

It can, with the utmost fairness, be said that this quartette can claim a leading place among all the lady quartettes which have won more or less celebrity on the concert platform, East and West. Its members are singers of exceptional natural talent, and their performance evidences careful and conscientious training, and serious attention to those details that count for so much in a true artist, and without the cultivation of which even genius must fail of due appreciation. There are defects in the work of these ladies, but there is in all human endeavor, but the critic would be captious indeed who could not honestly declare his enjoyment of such a concert as that of last night.

All the voices were good, naturally, and well trained, and all the numbers, but the programme were given with proper feeling and artistic execution. The voices of Mrs. Ercin and Miss Brush, second soprano and second alto, are powerful and of great compass, while Mrs. Wardwell and Miss Wilson's may more appropriately be described as pure-toned, sweet and cultivated. Miss Brush has an alto voice of great rarity, seldom if ever is it equal in depth, richness and compass to be heard, in concert or opera. With it and the pleasing personal Miss Brush happily possesses, she is endowed with qualities which ought to assure her success in more ambitious musical roles, should she choose to essay them.

The instrumental number, piano solo by Mrs. McKindley and a four-hand piece by Mrs. McKindley and Mrs. Lohman, were given with spirit, sympathetic appreciation of the artists' motives.

TO ABATE TAXES.

Petitions to that Effect Before the County Commissioners—The Physician.

At the hour of going to press with the last edition of the Herald last night all that could be said of the county commissioners' meeting was that Dr. Parham had been made county physician. Besides his bid of $1000 per year other bidders were received as follows: Dr. M. Sherrick, $1200; Dr. H. Spence, $1000; Dr. Charles L. Coddling, $750; Dr. Charles Slaughter, $1500; Dr. J. L. Landry, $800; Dr. M. Brant, $1000 and Edgar N. McGrath, $1000. A bond in the sum of $500 was demanded for the faithful performance of the duties of the office.

The committee on taxes reported favorably on the exempting of certain property of the independent school district from taxes, and the commissioners so voted. Abatement of taxes was petitioned for for the last three years on property owned by the Catholic church of the Sacred Heart, but not used for ecclesiastical purposes. Referred. The petitioners will appear again until next month's regular session.

The commissioners feel that they have been unjustly treated by the newspapers of the city in the matter of the physician. That there were so many bids from reputable graduate doctors to do the work for $1000 a year they think abundantly proof that an increase in salary was not needed, and they would appear correct. The question of the Catholic church's increase was started by one interested, who expected the office to be a better thing than they were willing to make it.

THE DAY IN THE CITY.

Lee is being cut in the St. Paul & Duluth ship No. 1 and hauled to local ice houses for the summer's consumption.

The police will petition the council to appropriate money for a patrol wagon, which is declared by them to be much needed.

Local Agent Mendall of the Wisconsin Central road, is traveling through North Dakota in the interests of his company.

Raeder and Coffin have not yet made the contract for the erection for the Palladium building, but are awaiting advice from Chicago.

Judge Carey and N. A. Gearhart have formed a partnership in the real estate and law business, with office in Judge Carey's old quarters.

Minimum temperature this morning was 19 above, with a very strong north wind and a little snow. The day has been a typical March one.

The police are looking for one Milton, an all-around tough, who is reported to be in town. It found he will be ordered to leave the city at once.

Hotel lobbies show a decided falling up from the past few weeks, and are now crowded nightly. This is an indication of an enlivening in real estate.

Several of the government whisky selling cases that were to have been taken to St. Paul this week have been taken to St. Paul, and will go before the United States commissioner there.

A one-fare round-trip ticket to St. Paul is on sale today to allow all who wish to visit St. Paul in the interests of pending legislation to do so. Many are taking advantage of the opportunity.

Northern Pacific engineers are said to be advancing from the Castle mining region to the mining camp at Nehalem.

The Postal Telegraph company is erecting a new line of two copper wires between Kansas City and Duluth. It is claimed a new line will be built along the St. Louis and Chicago line.

Officials of the Eastern Minnesota deny the report telegraphed from West Superior that the company intend putting on passenger service between St. Paul and West Superior in a short time. They state that the matter of putting on passenger service will not be settled for some time, and that the service will not be inaugurated until the line is completed to Duluth, and service will be made direct to this city with Duluth and St. Paul the terminus.

MEASURING ELECTRICITY.

A Peculiar and Very Interesting and Exact Little Machine.

The First of Its Kind Ever Seen in Duluth or the Northwest.

A queer little instrument it was that one of the Duluth electric light company's received yesterday from Chicago, and is today putting in place. It looked like a small electric motor, but was in fact a meter for measuring the electric current, such as gas or water is measured by the meter, and was the first one of the kind ever brought west of Chicago for actual use. With water and gas meters most people are familiar, but with the measurement of the electric fluid they are not so well up. It is easy to understand how water and gas can be measured, but it is perfectly impossible for one to be a little mystified as to the method of measuring the consumption of electric energy. One of the most important of the instruments hitherto invented for measuring electricity have been very complicated, embodying clock-work and chemical preparations as well as the most complicated and exact weighing apparatus. These got out of order and were not accurate. One of the latest instruments of this kind, and probably the best, is the Westinghouse meter, made by the Westinghouse Electric company, which the Light & Power company is now putting into the Kitchen (Cannon) club house.

The instrument, which is really a small motor, attached to one of the two wires running into a building, and turning at a speed directly proportional to the current passing through it. Thus, if the current is supplying a 2000 candle light, it would revolve 100 times as fast as if it were supplying one of 20 candle power. There are dial plates on the machine, and it shows, by an ingenious contrivance, the number of amperes, the measure of electricity, used in a certain time, precisely as the gas meter shows the number of feet burned. It has no clock-work, as some, and needs no winding up. The machine is in reality a chemical apparatus, compelling the most hair-splitting computations and calculations and weights to find the fact. The Westinghouse machine, used here, is about 6 inches square and 1½ inches high.

As the entire system of measuring electricity is so new a short description of another kind of meter, now being put to its first tests at St. Paul, may be in order. It is a small, portable, chemical machine, which is a solution of zinc sulphate in contact with zinc plates, making a positive and negative current. The zinc plate is placed in a chemical plate is gradually transferred by the action of the negative plate. Before putting in the plates they are weighed in extremely delicate scales, and after the change of zinc from the zinc plate the positive plate is weighed again. The difference in weight is the amount of electricity used. The machine is so simple that a boy could operate it. The consumer is then charged with the milligrams lost. The positive plate weighs 400 milligrams, and the negative plate weighs 100 milligrams. At the end of the month the plate shows a loss of 120 milligrams. The loss of the zinc of the positive plate is 120 milligrams an hour; and it is therefore possible to ascertain what the consumer must be paying for. To facilitate the machine, especially in a cold climate, a thermostat is put into each with a contact point connected with a lamp. When the temperature falls below a certain point the thermo star curves up, bringing the two contact points together, closing a circuit through the lamp and heating the interior. As the temperature grows higher the thermo star curves down, and the circuit is broken, and the lamp goes out. All this is very pretty but is decidedly complicated, and the simple Westinghouse meter, by its simplicity, is far more satisfactory and economical.

THEY MEET AGAIN.

Masonic Temple People Hold a Second Architect Cobb did not leave for the east yesterday, as had been expected, but remained in Duluth and was present at a large meeting of the lodge, which was held last night. Nothing of particular importance was done; the only matter decided on was to begin on the foundation of a two-story, weather permitting, the dimensions of the theater and other building to be as stated in the Herald by Mr. Cobb yesterday.

Two hundred and forty-five dollars in a red leather pocket book, lined with black velvet, and containing a large sum of money, was found yesterday in the street. The book dropped probably between First street east and Garfield avenue, West End. The loser is a poor man who borrowed part of the money to pay for house and lot. Return to Herald office and suitable reward will be paid.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Thos. Downe left this forenoon for Michigan, West, Michigan East and Foster to Duluth this season. This probably grows out of the reputed visit of President Hill to New York.

Among Duluthians who went down to St. Paul last night were Judge Stearns, C. E. Shannon, J. H. Harris, O. G. Trappagan, R. C. Mitchell, W. G. Hodgson and others. There are also a number of Duluth people who have been there several days, including Dr. Walbank and R. Munger.

The delicious fragrance, refreshing coolness, and soft beauty imparted to the skin by Pozzoni's Powder commands it to all ladies.

THE IRON LAND COMPANY.

No News Received in Duluth of a Celebration of the Big Vermilion Deal.

A London, England, paper containing the articles of incorporation of the Iron & Land company of Minnesota, the successor to the Consolidated Vermilion company, has been received here. Nothing more definite is known of the plans of the new company or the details of the matter than have been known here for months by all those interested. There is no more certainty of the completion of the deal than six months ago, when it was considered thoroughly assured by Duluth stockholders in the Consolidated.

When Mr. C. E. Parent arrived from England the matter will probably be closed up. When finally closed it will distribute nearly a million dollars in cash to about 400 Duluth people, one or two of whom get $20,000 each, and it is therefore a matter of the utmost importance to all those interested.

A leading member of the company speaking of the article appearing in a Duluth morning paper today said that he had no information that would lead him to believe anything more definite had been done, and he would know regarding the matter as soon as anyone this side of the Atlantic. The article copied this morning he believed to be correct, and he thought it was a prospectus published by Mr. Parent to secure stock subscriptions in London and other parts of England. Mr. Parent himself is still there working the deal and had he started for Duluth a subscription would have been received here long ago.

The books are now open for stock sales in the seventh series of the Home-Set Building & Loan association. Call and see us. P. W. Savin, Secretary.

WORLD OF COMMERCE.

A Decline in the Price of Wheat All Along the Line Today.

Stocks Decrease Rapidly--The Copper Market Dull.

Wheat opened weak and lower at 1 1/2 below yesterday's close on May at 1.12, at which figure it ruled easy with sellers. Later a firmer feeling prevailed. Cash 1 hand was in demand selling at 1.09 which was relatively higher than May. The close was steady at opening figures on May and 1c lower for cash.

Cash No. 1 hard, sales at 1.09, closed 1.08. No. 1 northern, at .98. No. 2 northern, at .88. May, first trading at 1.12, ruled easy with further transactions at that figure. Later prices firmed, with buyers at 1.12 1/2, later it sold back to 1.12 where it closed firm. June, closed with buyers at 1.11 1/2; July, wheat closed at 1.10.

May corn sales at 35, which was the nominal close with buyers.

Wheat receipts this morning were 8111 bushels, corn receipts 31,466 bushels. On track are 45 cars wheat, 88 cars corn. Of the wheat, 11 cars are white winter and four spring.

THE MILLER'S REPORT.

Weekly Review of Flour and Wheat Markets at Minneapolis.

In its issue of today the Northwestern Miller says regarding the Minneapolis flour trade of the week: "The supply of water was much improved throughout all last week, especially during the closing three days. Less steam was used, and the flour production was of good proportions. Thirteen mills ground 97,620 barrels against 86,700 week before, and 113,100 barrels for the week in 1888. There is a good head of water this week, and mills keeping their engines going are only doing so from a fear of suddenly being drawn down, and a small amount of steam is kept up. Ten mills were in operation today, turning out 17,000 barrels per 24 hours. The heavy shrinkage in wheat values has had a bad effect on flour, and prices were on Monday lowered 2c per barrel.

Early in the week moderate sales were reported, but the weakness of wheat prevented more. One firm on Monday reported a sale of 200 cars of bakers' flour at 27s, and still another of 20 London at 27s, and still another of 20 Minneapolis to Milwaukee or Chicago, to 7 1/2c per hundred is generally looked for within a very short time. The week's trade is weak and quite generally lower. The direct exports of flour for the week were 15,270 barrels against 13,800 barrels the preceding week.

Want an Equal Show.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—(Special.)—A number of colored Republicans from the Southern states are in conference here today for the purpose of taking steps to impress upon President Harrison the fact that a conservation policy should be employed in the treatment of the race problem. They resent the insinuation that they are themselves looking after the colored people, but say that in their opinion the colored people should have an equal show with white, and so far as the lesser appointments of the government are concerned. They will call upon General Harrison this afternoon or tomorrow.

WHEAT AND STOCKS GO UP

Better Prices in the Wheat Pit and With a Strong Feeling.

Bradstreets Estimates the Situation—General Market Notes.

The wheat market was steady and higher today and wheat was firm all session. No trading was booked until late, when May started in at an advance of a cent over yesterday's close, and July 2 cents up. But little stuff was on the market and it came out slowly, the feature of the day being a considerable amount of changing over of May to July at a difference of a cent, the premium on May having heretofore been 2 cents. As usual, cash wheat was neglected and little was for sale. The small receipts of contract grade stuff and the large amount of Oregon wheat coming in restraints trading in cash.

May wheat opened late at 113, buyers being very slow to get up the cent difference since last night. One sale was made late 112½, but the close was firm at 113 sellers. Cash was a cent up, 1½ closed 100, 1 northern 10 cents below and 2 northern 20 cents lower. June was nominally 112½ at the close, July closed at 112 after a rate at 113½, and several trades at the top.

May corn closed dull and quiet, without sales, at 54½.

CORN NOTES.

Stocks of wheat and corn in Duluth increase for the week ending today about 65,000 bushels wheat, and 17,000 bushels corn. Stocks in store next Monday will be, therefore, 1,877,000 bushels wheat and 873,000 bushels corn. Had elevators been running today, the corn would have been 840,000 bushels. Of wheat received, only about 11,000 bushels are contract grade, the rest being Oregon white.

Elevators are not running today, it being deemed best to keep corn contracts sealed up in such damp weather to allow no opportunity for the absorption of moisture, corn being especially susceptible to dampness.

The week closes with a decline from last Saturday of 1 cent on the cash and March 2 cents on May and 1½ cents on June and July.

Receipts here today are 21,427 bushels wheat, 31,350 bushels corn, shipments nothing. Cans on trucks are 44 wheat, 18 corn.

WHEAT CONTRACTS.

Bradstreets of this afternoon says: Wheat in hand March 1st, 191,000,000 bushels; seed and food requirements to July 1st, 108,000,000 bushels; reserve then, 20,000,000 bushels; total, 121,000,000 bushels. Leaving available for export until July 1st, 63,000,000. We are sure wheat on hand in United States and Canada was 200,000,000 bushels on March 1st as against 210,000,000 bushels same date last year.

BIG MONEY FOR BEER.

Agents for Baron Rothschild Trying to Buy St. Louis Breweries.

St. Louis, Mo., March 16.—It is announced here that on Wednesday last an offer of $7,000,000 was made for the Anheuser-Busch brewery and it was rejected. On Thursday Mr. James Campbell, a wealthy banker and broker of St. Louis, acting for Mr. Underwood, a banker of New York, who in turn represents the banking house of Baron Rothschild, offered Mr. Bush $8,000,000 in cash for the property, and this was promptly declined.

A forfeiture of $1,000,000 was put up as a proof of the sincerity of the offer, and the only condition proposed was that Mr. Bush should remain here one year and give the new management the benefit of his knowledge of the details of the business, but he would not later to the proposition. Mr. Campbell, as well as Mr. Bush, verifies the above statement, and in speaking of negotiations for other breweries here, said that Mr. Ellis Wainwright was offering $100,000 if he would make a written proposition to sell. That is, $100,000 would be given him to simply state in writing what terms he would sell on, the money to be paid regardless of whether his proposition was accepted or rejected; but he declined, and so far as he knew all trades for St. Louis brewery property are off.

STOCKS GO UP.

An Active Stock Market Closes Strong, With Advances All Along the Line.

New York, March 16.—Noon: Money closed easy, offered at 2 per cent with no loans. The stock market continued active after eleven o'clock and the upward movement began in the first hour, made further material progress all through the list. The grangers came to the count as leaders in the movement, and all of them became conspicuous for the gains recorded. Rising 1½, Atchinson & St. Paul ½, Northern 1 per cent and Burlington 1½ from lower points. The rest of the list rose fractionally, while Philadelphia was exceptionally strong, rising 3 per cent. The upward movement met with no check, and the market closed active and strong at the best prices of the day.

AN EXCITED CHICAGO.

Broken up Brokers in Chicago Done by Hutchinson's Tactics.

Chicago, March 16.—The wheat market went wild almost from the start. May after jumping from 95½ to 96 at the opening of 97½, eased back momentarily to 97 and then lunged forward to 98½. Hutchinson's brokers were openly bidding for wheat, in fact were bidding a small fraction above the market all the way up just as on yesterday. The small shorts were panic-stricken, but the quantity of wheat for sale was scant till May got up to 98. Here the offerings became large, and the market reacted to 97½, and the crowd said that it had again been "whipped," and it realized that the wheat bought under cover yesterday at 95 was sold today at 98.

The close was: Wheat steady; cash, 94½; April, 95½; May, 97½; Corn steady; cash, 34 3/16; May, 35½; July, 36. Oats firm; cash, 24; May, 25½; Rye, 45 May.

New York Market.

New York, March 16.—Wheat—receipts, 400,000 bushels; sales, 2,644,000 bushels. Declined ½ to ¼, advanced 5/16. Reached ¼ to ½ and a now as last night's. ## ON THE HIGH SEAS.

Marine News of Local and General Interest.

A deputation representing the boards of trade of Montreal, Toronto, Kingston, Hamilton, St. Catharines, Port Arthur and Winnipeg has petitioned the dominion officials for a reduction of canal tolls during the coming season. They point out that it is highly desirable and necessary that these tolls should be reduced this year, the same as had been done for the past two seasons, in order to keep the traffic of the St. Lawrence route from being diverted to the Erie route. They also wanted information as to the enlargement of the canal system of the dominion, asking expedition. The premier gave them no promises, but said he would reply in a few days.

The recent wind storm and rain have broken up the ice in the lake and probably blown in all this side of Keweenaw point. It is now but little more than slush ice.

The planking on the Estelle and Hattie Lloyd are over half done, the former vessel being nearly ready for spring work and the latter will be ready in a few days.

If the present weather holds on, an attempt will be made to resume communication by ferry between Duluth and Superior April 1.

Selling Notes.

A letter has been received from the California club informing Jim Murman that arrangements will be made for an early meeting between Billy Wilson and Korravay, the Pole, who knocked Frank Glover out without an effort. Mike Conley, the heavyweight, has accepted Sheehy's sweeping challenge for a fight for from $500 to $100 a side. An effort has been made to match the Michigan champion against Billy Wilson, but he would have none of it. The fight will take place in Ashland within a month.

ATTEND TO THE DOCKS.

Pressing Need of Attention and Some Good Work by Somebody.

Pending the appointment of the proper authority the various slips and docks must rest with the police force and the health department. A joint around the harbor is perhaps quite tedious, but not is the proper time to observe the condition of the slips.

Take slip No. 1 or the St. Paul & Duluth slip, for instance, and the observer can see at a glance the terrible condition it is in. Myriads of pieces of plank, old barrels, boxes, and every description of debris are plentifully scattered along its entire length. From a health-obscuring point of view, the situation demands a change. The refuse animal and vegetable matter that floats out as some expect, but will sink to the bottom of the slip, decay in time, and be stirred up and set its part toward engendering disease. Then it adds to the all too rapid accumulation at the bottom, lessens the clear navigable depth, and necessitates another dredging before long. The lumber litter and other light objects which will not sink will be driven by the passing vessels and become a menace in other ways to the various moving craft.

It is no exaggeration to say that at least fifteen cords of wood—such as old plank, heavy timbers and boards—is littered about on the ice in the St. Paul & Duluth slip alone, and there are other vessel avenues in fully as bad a condition. By the time a vessel is sunk, or has a broken wheel, it is damaged in some such way, and the city is made to pay for it, then the council will realize what might have been averted if it had taken the necessary "stitch in time." Before the ice breaks up it is proper to attend to the harbor, and to see that all debris is removed.

A Seared Sweetie.

M. Anderson, the Swede, who was jailed yesterday, as he was supposed to be insane, was examined by Dr. McComb this morning. He had stopped the use of stimulants since December last, and was suffering from nervous debility caused from this, and from the fact that some one told him "the Lord wouldn't listen to his prayers." His insanity is only temporary, and he will recover. Though he was decidedly insane, and it was at first the intention to have him taken to St. Peter, but at the last moment Nels Hall and the Lutheran minister volunteered to take care of him, and he was turned over to them. They took him to St. Luke's hospital, placed him in charge of a special nurse, and will not aid him in recovering his reason. He has been a resident of Duluth for twenty years, is 45 years old, and has a wife and children in Sweden.

COAL ON HAND.

Large Quantities of Coal, Mostly Soft, on Hand For This Season.

Notwithstanding the cold weather of last month, the coal docks of the city are piled up with more coal than there is any prospect of selling before the opening of navigation. The Northwestern Fuel company, on its big dock at the foot of First avenue west, has nearly 100,000 tons of coal piled up, while at the West End dock and the Superior city dock of the same company is as much more. The Ohio company's sold down well on all but hard coal, but has a large quantity of that on hand. The Duluth Fuel company and the St. Paul & Duluth company, both have much on hand, particularly the Lehigh, though it is burning all it can take. The Pioneer Fuel company and Wm. C. Sargent have but little coal on their docks. Altogether it is probable that fully 400,000 tons are now on docks on both sides of the bay. Sales during February were double those of any other month of the winter, and were fully as large as September sales, much to the surprise of the fuel companies. It is now estimated that with the new docks of the Eastern road, now being built, the enlargement of other local docks, and the new dock of the St. Paul & Duluth company, which will hold 200,000 tons, next fall, the total amount of coal handled here during the season of navigation will not be far from 2,000,000 tons.

There is not such a large amount of hard coal on the docks as many would suppose, and the glut of soft coal. There is, however, considerable soft coal on hand for railroad and manufacturing purposes, and one of the companies has considerable quantities of it on the docks of the coal is shipped away from the center but left piled around the edges of the docks.

All About the Man-Eaters.

The people of Duluth are to be given an opportunity to listen to a celebrated explorer Monday evening, when Dr. Carl Lumholtz will tell about his experiences among the cannibals of Northern Australia. This gentleman has had a most remarkable career. His life has been full of the romance of the explorer. He is a man of wide culture, a distinguished presence, and is possessed of those peculiar qualities which have made the names of Stanley, Livingstone and Taylor household words throughout the civilized world. The doctor will speak in English, but will also deliver the native tongue Tuesday evening. The lecture will be illustrated by fifty fine stereoscopic views.

The amendments to the articles of incorporation of the Duluth Electric Light and Power company were filed at the register's office this morning, increasing the authorized capital to $200,000.

Six "unpublished deeds" appear in the detailed real estate record today. The total of these transfers are valued at $17,500, or $700 a foot.

AMONG THE MAN-EATERS.

Chat With a Man Who Spent Four Years Among Australian Cannibals.

The Work and Adventures of an Eminent Norwegian Ethnologist.

Dr. Carl Lumholtz Tells the Herald Readers About His Travels.

"I am visiting America for the first time, having arrived here January 10," said Dr. Carl Lumholtz this morning.
"Besides making a lecture tour through Europe, I have lived since 1880 among the Australian natives. I was sent there by the Christiania university to learn all I could about the natives."

"The cannibals, who live in the interior of the island continent," said the doctor, "are a very monotonous, the low, flat plains only relieved by clumps of tall eucalyptic or gum trees. Australia is the hottest and most healthy of tropical countries, the gun trees, whose foliage absorbs all miasmatic vapors arising from the moist earth, causing health. I spent most of my time with a tribe in the interior of Queensland, and it was the most peculiar. Forty thousand natives, divided into numerous tribes, constitute the native population.
I will tell you only of the tribe with which I made my home. The cannibals, for most of these tribes are human flesh eaters, are nomads, have no settled place abode, but wander about. Neither men nor women wear clothing, but go naked the year round. Though under the average height, the Australian is by no means ill looking, his muscular development being remarkable. But they are treacherous, and one of the first things
I was told was, 'Never let a black nigger get behind you,' and I found out the need of this caution. They wear no manufactured ornament. Their only vanity, and this is confined to the men, consists of cutting the flesh of the breast and stomach into which sticks and live ants are inserted so that the wound open, until great ridges of flesh are formed. These are their only decorations."

"They eat cooked food, for it is a great mistake to consider that they like raw flesh, and are fastidious. Human flesh is considered the greatest delicacy, and at intervals man hunts are organized:
They will descend on a small tribe, kill the old men and women, and carry their bodies away for feasting. They never eat one of their own tribe. The vegetable matter eaten is not nutritious, and they eat so much of it that they become greatly distended, giving a peculiar appearance. They have no stimulants and would give me their women for a small amount of tobacco. This article, together with my rifle and revolvers, were my means of safety. The former I must offer them for the service, while the latter I used to keep in my hand, as they ascribed the effects of the shot to the devil. They have no religious belief except that they think there is an evil spirit. Their dead, they either bury or put on a platform, under which when the hot sun has begun to fry, they allow the grease to drip on them, believing better to gain strength. The language is a beautiful one, that of the Africans. Music is made by beating two sticks together, while rudely worded songs are sung in an unpleasant manner. They are polygamous, and wives are the only property or possessions outside of war implements. There is no marriage ceremony."

"A man must steal a wife or barter for a female relative. When stealing his partner he is liable to be killed, as the woman stolen always belongs to somebody else. To settle disputes duels are held, and on these days several pairs of disputants, armed with wooden swords and shields, fight to the end. Sometimes they are killed, often badly wounded.
Back of the combatants, old women, by beating sticks and screaming, serve to stimulate the courage of the warriors.
When a man is worsted, they rush between him and his conqueror to save him.
Beyond the wooden sword, the only weapons are spears and clubs. Many times would I have been killed, but I was not a faithful black servant."

"One of the best results of my explorations was, that I discovered a new kind of kangaroo. It is a beautiful animal with black head and feet and yellowish brown body. Its peculiarity is, that it climbs trees and is furnished with long, sharp pointed claws, for snakes are very numerous and I have had many narrow escapes from them. Bathing is difficult in Australia because of water snakes, whose bites are fatal. The creatures are beautifully colored, some of them with all the hues of the rainbow. Often they can succeed in climbing into boats."

"A small black spider, about the size of a house fly, is as poisonous as the ven-erous. A small flea also makes life miserable."

"Towards the last year of my stay there the blacks made so many plots to kill me that my life was miserable, and some of the time I did not care whether they did so or not."

"I collected a great many curiosities in Queensland and will place them in the World's exposition in May. I have lectured in Germany, Scandinavia, France and England. Whenever I have been in Denmark the king has interested himself in me, and his family never tire of asking questions about that wonderful country. After my stay in Europe I will return to America in the fall and then go back to Australia."

An Ex-President's Birthday.
New York, March 18.—(Special.)—Ex-President Grover Cleveland is 52 years of age today, having been born on March 18, 1837. This fact, according to the clerk of the Victoria hotel, explained the large number of telegrams and cards which were taken to his rooms before he made his appearance this morning. At 12 o'clock, accompanied by ex-Secretaries Hayard and Dickinson, Mr. Cleveland will leave for Cuba, going by way of Tampa, where they will take the steamer Olive. They will return in about two weeks.

Sympathy with Farnell.
JOLIET, Ill., March 18.—(Special.)— What promises to be one of the largest and most influential demonstrations ever seen in Joliet will be held in the opera house tonight for the purpose of expressing sympathy with Farnell, the German admiral, who has been arrested and is being held at Bognamoy. They are unarmed.

On Stanley's Trail.
ZANZIBAR, March 18.—Dr. Abbott and Thomas Stevens have gone to Mount Kenia.

and clergy men of all denominations will participate, and delegations will be present from Chicago, Aurora, Elgin and other nearby cities.

DULUTH & WINNIPEG.

The Great Debate Will Probably Occur
This Evening.
St. Paul, March 18.—(Special.)— Today is set apart for the final struggle upon the Duluth & Winnipeg bill, and grant bill. It will be a battle royal, and this morning the men arrayed on either side are starting up to a high pitch of excitement, while those who have no part in the proceedings, but who during the long contest have taken such a great interest in the affair, are watching with the outcome. All day yesterday work was done by both parties. Every senator in the city was found in the streets and each side tried to place him right.
The leaders of both sides fell confidently that they would win, and it must be confessed that the enemies of the bill are most emphatic in their claims that they will defeat it. "Even if it should be passed," said a member of the committee of the whole, "we will kill it in the committee."

On the floor of the senate it must be said that Senator Buchanan is the chief opponent. Without any doubt he is the leader. It might be supposed that the Duluth senator would be regarded as the leader of the light, but it is not so. It is Buchanan and Buchanan's influence that carries more weight than any one else.

St. Paul, March 18, 3 p. m.—(Special.)
—The senate will not take up the discussion of the Duluth & Winnipeg bill until late this afternoon, and it is not thought probable that the debate will be continued during the evening. Everything is very much quiet, but the debate is anticipated. The friends of the bill are hopeful and confidently predict its passage. Its opponents are not so sure. They are waiting, but they appear to be very well satisfied and throw out quiet hints to the effect that the bill will not pass. It is to be reminded before it is brought to a vote.

The Senate's Morning Session.
St. Paul, March 18.—The half hour of the senate session this morning was devoted to the reading of the Duluth & Winnipeg bill, and the passing of local bills. After a time Senator Popple asked leave to introduce a resolution requesting the house to return the bill fixing the date of adjournment as April 1. He explained that if the house should adopt the resolution today, it would leave only three days in which bills might be introduced before the beginning of the twenty-day limit, and he thought the interests of the state required a longer time. The resolution was adopted.

REV. C. H. SMITH.

A Minneapolis Drummer Thinks he Has Found a New Method of Making Money.
ROCHESTER, March 18.—William Robertson of this city, traveling salesman for Linsley Bros. of Minneapolis, left for his home at 8 o'clock yesterday morning. When the train was at West Paul, Robertson was reading an account of the supposed suicide of Rev. C. Hudson Smith at Dorchester, Mass. Leaving the car and passing rapidly through the rear of the train, Robertson, who knew Smith well at one time, a member of his church in this city, followed him to satisfy himself that he was not mistaken. He says he is sure it was Smith that he saw, though he did not speak to him, because he had heard he was insane. Robertson called the conductor's attention to the man, and pointed him out.

Smith is a peculiar-looking man, and one easily identified. He arrived at West St. Paul, on the Milwaukee and St. Paul road, and was there transferred to a Chicago & Kansas City train, and went on that train when it left Dodge Center. It is supposed he has gone to California. The news caused considerable excitement among Smith's friends here, and Dr. Campbell, of Minneapolis, Smith's brother-in-law, has been notified of the fact. Smith is supposed to be perfectly sane. He had about $1000 with him when he left Massachusetts.

NEW GOLD MINES.

Great Excitement in the Sweet Grass Hills.
BIG SANDY, Mont., March 18.—This little town is full of excitement over the discovery of gold mines in the Sweet Grass hills, 12 miles north of here.
People have just arrived from the hills reporting that miners in the Edgemoor quadrangle have struck gold. The country is full of prospectors from Helen and other mining districts.

If the present rush continues straight-on, it is not unlikely that the result will be a great influx of miners from all parts of Montana and Dakota who are flocking here in great numbers without making adequate preparation for subsistence.

Lively Times Tonight.

LONDON, March 18.—(Special.)—There are likely to be lively times in the commons tonight when the appropriation for the police is presented for consideration. The Farnellites are more than mad over the disclosure that Le Carré, the notorious informer, was permitted to cram his memory from the files of his correspondence in the home office, and ex-Home Secretary Sir William Vernon Harcourt will submit a motion censuring Mr. Anderson, the home office clerk through whom Le Carré was accommodated. As the official in question is defended by the government he will, of course, be vindicated by the usual majority, but all the same it will afford the liberals one more opportunity of putting their opponents on the rack.

Wheelmen at Omaha.
OMAHA, March 18.—(Special.)—All is readiness for the bicycle race which opens today and closes on Saturday.
The participants are T. W. Eck, the professional; Louise Armando, champion of the world; Jessie Woods, winner of the Philadelphia race; Hattie Newman, winner of the Pittsburgh race; Helen Baldwin
of Brooklyn; Kitty Brown, Pittsburg;
Lulu Hart, Pittsburg and Jessie Oakes,
champion of England.

To Remind the Town.
BERLIN, March 18.—Dispatches to the Cologne Gazette and other German papers say that the British residents have been warned to leave Oudini, the German admiral having announced his intention to bombard the place. The participants are T. W. Eck, the professional; Louise Armando, champion of the world; Jessie Woods, winner of the Philadelphia race; Hattie Newman, winner of the Pittsburgh race; Helen Baldwin
of Brooklyn; Kitty Brown, Pittsburg;
Lulu Hart, Pittsburg and Jessie Oakes,
champion of England.

TRIPLE MURDER IN INDIA.

A Native Servant Kills Three People and Then Robs
the House.

Los Angeles Constable Loses His Life Trying to Make an Arrest.

A Beautiful Woman's Infatuation—An English Hanging.

New York, March 18.—(Special.)— Advice from India via London today gives additional particulars of the triple murder at Nadur a few weeks ago and which was mentioned in the cable dispatches at that time. The victims were a wealthy lady named Ruttonhai, her daughter Banowai and a child named Aspandiar, a grandson by a deceased daughter, while the murderer was an Indian servant named Dauli who has just reached his seventeenth year and had been employed by the family less than a month.

After having secured himself on the whereabouts of the valuables in the house and the habits of the family, he entered Ruttonhai's bedroom on the morning of the murder while she was performing her toilet and killed her with a blow from an iron pestle which had been used for pounding spices. With another blow he dispatched the child, and then going into the adjoining room where Banowai was resting he pounded her head to a jelly. For several days the native police were at a loss for clues.
Then, emboldened by their silence, Dauli made bold to offer some of the valuables for sale to a goldsmith at Marazgon.
This led to his arrest and commitment to the city jail. His trial takes place next week and his commitment is considered a foregone conclusion.

BLOODY BATTLE.

How They Arrest Men in Flowery California.
LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 18.—Constantine Harnishberger went out to Garvan, a village, yesterday to arrest an old man named Sprague for beating his little girl.
Sprague shot Harnishberger through the head, inflicting a mortal wound, and then opened fire on Deputies McCutchin and Jones, who had accompanied him to surround him. The deputies then returned to the city and gave the alarm.

Several parties then started out to capture Sprague. One party overtook him between South Pasadena and Alhambra. Sprague turned on them and fired, killing one of the party. The pursuers replied with volleys. Finally H. W. Patton, register of the land office, succeeded in firing off a shot which killed Sprague through the head, inflicting a mortal wound, and then opened fire on Deputies McCutchin and
Jones, who had accompanied him to surround him. The deputies then returned to

Beautiful Mrs. Fish Leaves Her Home to Follow a Player.

ROCHESTER, March 18.—Mrs. Charles Fish of Worthington, who became engaged to Stone, a member of Sutton's "The Great Cabin" company, arrived here Friday, stopping at the North-house. The manager of the company, Charles Stone, called upon her, and read her a section of the riot act, advising her to leave town. He said she was injuring the reputation of his company, and that Stone cared nothing for her and would not see her. He advised her to return to her husband and he would give her money to return with him. She refused to do so, when Chief of Police Kall was called in, and she was placed in a cage. She was taken to the jail, and she left for Burlington, Iowa, where her mother resides. Mrs. Fish is a beautiful woman and cried piteously when told that Stone would have nothing to do with her.

Wants a Ship Canal.

LANSING, Mich., March 18.—W. H.
McKenzie, of New York, arrived here today to endeavor to induce the legislature to grant a charter for the proposed ship canal across the upper peninsula, between Lakes Michigan and Superior.
The route selected is thirty-six miles long and begins at Bay View, near Marquette, and ends at Marquette. Its southern terminus will be Little Bay DeNoe, near Gladstone. Two locks will be necessary. It is estimated that the distance of 271 miles from Marquette
to Chicago and Duluth. Mr. McKenzie said that he had abundant funds and Chicago capital interested, and that the company will be organized within sixty days after charter is granted.

A Murderer Hanged.

LOS ANGELES, March 18.—(Special.)—Edwin
Wilkinson was hanged in Dunham jail
this morning for the murder of John Graham, a policeman. Wilkinson was a well-to-do butcher of Galesburg. During the last week in January he was arrested and fined for being drunk and disorderly.
Police Constable Graham preferring the charge. Two nights later he laid in wait for the officer at a point on his beat and plunged a butcher's knife into his breast. Wilkinson died instantly while the murderer dashed wildly
through the principal streets flourishing
the bloody knife in one hand and the policeman's baton in the other.

Sorely Twenty-Four Years Old.

NEW YORK, March 18.—(Special.)—
The delegates to the women's convention, which Sorosis is celebrating her twenty-fourth birthday, took possession of the large banquet hall of Del-monter's at noon today, and are observing her coming of age with considerable merrymaking. To meet the objections of a minority of the participants who have been abolished from the menu cards.

Conquering Farnell.

STONEY, N. S. W., March 18.—Many large meetings have been held in the various cities of Australia at which resolutions were adopted congratulating Mr.
Farnell on his victory in the matter of the charges made against him by the London Times. Large sums of money were raised at the meetings for the benefit of the Irish cause.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 18.—Late Chilian advices state that the Chilian government has issued a decree prohibiting the immigration of Chinese into the country.

long and begins at Bay View, near Marquette, and ends at Marquette. Its southern terminus will be Little Bay DeNoe, near Gladstone. Two locks will be necessary. It is estimated that the distance of 271 miles from Marquette
to Chicago and Duluth. Mr. McKenzie
said that he had abundant funds and Chicago capital interested, and that the company will be organized within
sixty days after charter is granted.

A Murderer Hanged.

LOS ANGELES, March 18.—(Special.)—Edwin
Wilkinson was hanged in Dunham jail
this morning for the murder of John Graham, a policeman. Wilkinson was a well-to-do butcher of Galesburg. During the last week in January he was arrested and fined for being drunk and disorderly.
Police Constable Graham preferring the charge. Two nights later he laid in wait for the officer at a point on his beat
and plunged a butcher's knife into his breast. Wilkinson died instantly while
the murderer dashed wildly
through the principal streets flourishing
the bloody knife in one hand and the policeman's baton in the other.

Who Will Have Walker's Place?

WASHINGTON, March 18.—General
Nettleton, of Minnesota, may be offered the position of appointment clerk in the treasury department. In case he does not accept, it has been suggested that his name be sent to the president as commissioner of interstate commerce to succeed Aldous F. Walker, of New York, who will soon resign to become chairman of the Western Association of railroads leading from Chicago. Mr. Walker is a republican and of course his successor will of necessity be of the same political complexion. It is argued that the West is entitled to another commissioner and that the Northwest in particular should be represented, if possible, in this connection. The position is worth $7,50

THE QUESTION OF THE DAY.

Today the question of the Duluth & Winnipeg land grant is expected to come before the senate in committee of the whole. There should be no question about its decision. It is clearly for the interest of the state to confirm the old grant and to forward the construction of the road as rapidly as possible along the line laid out.

The report of the land committee carries no weight one way or the other. The influence controlling it are apparent. The desire to shut off a full and fair hearing is obvious. Apart from this its judgment under any circumstances would have no force beyond the consideration which the opinions of its members individually may be entitled to. It does not pass upon the question as a judiciary committee might. Its conclusion is lame and impotent. Moreover, this conclusion is not the voice of the committee as a whole, but the snap judgment of a part. It is not worth a snap.

The question comes then wholly undetermined before the senate to be judged on its merits. The reasons for the allowance of the grant are plain and cogent. The construction of a line between Winnipeg and Duluth cannot fail to add materially to the grain movement through this country and the return export. Such a line is essential to the development of northeastern Minnesota. It will be one open up and make settlement and industrial enterprises possible in a section now lying waste. The cost of such a line will be heavy and local support along the line for years small, inasmuch as the resources of the land are undeveloped and no present settlements invite railway extension. On this account, the claim of the enterprise for state aid is exceptional, and this fact was frankly recognized when the grant was made. The same considerations hold good today when the expediency of waiving an alleged forfeiture is to be considered.

Nobody seriously questions now that the Duluth & Winnipeg railway company has the ability and the will to press the construction of the line as soon as its grant is confirmed. Is it not expedient under the circumstances to view its previous delay in a considerate and liberal spirit and put no blocks in the way of the rapid completion of the line so much needed? Such a course has been as a rule the practice in other states in regard to line undertakings and has commended itself to the common sense of the public. Why should Minnesota make an exception in this case? What has the state to gain by such action and what will it lose by the confirmation of the grant?

After careful investigation we feel sure by confirming this grant. The important thing is not to let a disputed title to some inaccessible swampy land but to make the Duluth-Winnipeg connection and offer material inducements for the development of the adjacent country. This will be effected by confirmation. The contrary course will lead to delay, wrangling and uncertain development. What public interest will suffer through this grant? We have so far looked in vain for some rational answer on the part of its opponents. We know that General Baker has stood up with a great show of devotion in behalf of the school fund, which he would protect from robbery. But his swelling phrases burst like blackbirds when a pin of fact is thrust in them. Does the general not know that much of the best swampy land along the line has been carefully picked out and taken up in behalf of this fund? The fund is particularly interested in the maintenance of the surveyed line and the rapid extension of work on it. It will not lose but gain by the selection of outlying land for the road and the inducement to branch extensions that will follow.

Moreover, in face of the advantage to the state at large from this important channel of commerce, any such slight impairment to the great school fund as might possibly attend this grant, with the fullest allowance for the claims of General Baker, would be too insignificant for serious notice. The cry of robbery is a flash pretext which a man should be ashamed to palm off as a genuine objection. What real representative of the public schools has uttered one word in support of this pretext? Are the friends of the public schools all dead except General Baker or are they sleeping so soundly that even his outcry cannot wake them? Will he keep on shouting wolf when he sees that nobody heeds him? If so, we hope for his sake, that he is certain of some pay for the use of his voice.

The street sign question comes up in the council this evening. Every visitor is calling for attention to it, and the city should see to it at once. Duluth can well afford to show signal consideration for the wants of strangers, and this measure is one of simply ordinary consideration. Mark the street corners without delay.

Dr. Carl Lumholz, who will lecture at Ingalls hall this evening, is an explorer of the first standing and his lecture will be a rare and entertaining and graphic account of a strange and stirring experience among the cannibal tribes of Northern Australia, illustrated by very fine stereoscopic views. Owing to the neglect of his advance agent, no adequate notice of the lecture has been given, but we hope that he may have a large and appreciative audience. He is preparing a book on America and should have good cause to remember the head of the lakes.

Yesterday was a great day for St. Patrick and the shamrock. It is plain that the head of the lakes is not hanging men and women for wearing of the green. Our little emerald isle in Spirit lake is a memorial ground in miniature. It is a Grand Island, too, as the original will be, if it gets half a chance to show what it can do if let alone.

Lower California has its gold boom and now from the Sweet-Grass hills of Montana comes another boom to match it. These boom come to like pond lilies to the surface to blow awhile, but for the evergreen perennial boom come to the head of the lakes. This summer the explorers in the Vermilion district propose to paint the Iron Range red.

The utter collapse of the Tory Irish policy, can perhaps be understood better if considered from the Tory standpoint. Last July, when the Parnell commission was being organized and Mr. Joseph Chamberlain was giving as much aid and comfort to the party which was determined to pull Gladstone and Parnell down as he was capable of, he made a speech in parliament in which he said, referring to the letters of the Times, printed as coming from Mr. Parnell: "If these letters are shown conclusively to be base forgeries the whole of the case would be so prejudicial that the public would not pay much attention to anything else."

From all parts of the state come strong and moving appeals against the Seventeen usury bill. There is unanswerable evidence that the passage of this bill, however well-intended its object, will defeat the purpose of its framers and cause a stringency in the market which will cripple the needy farmers of the state and throw them into the hands of unscrupulous money lenders. Only the sharks will profit by this bill if it becomes a law, and the rudimentary knowledge of the law of demand and supply is sufficient for the right understanding of the effect of this proposed measure of relief. The senate should throw it out without hesitation, and state the common sense reason for so doing.

A Credit to a Live City.
South Minnesota News: The Duluth Herald, under its new management, will compare favorably with the evening papers anywhere in the Northwest. It is decidedly metropolitan in tone, and is a credit to that live city by the lake.

Will Help the State and the Party.
Boston Journal: A comprehensive civil service reform bill has just been submitted to the Minnesota legislature. If the republican majority accepts the measure, or one similar to it, and enacts it into law, it will do much to put the state's public service on a business-like common-sense basis, and to strengthen the republican party with the people.

THE EDITORS' SAYINGS.

Little Falls Transcript: When Duluth decides to have a thing she "gets there" without delay.
Arizona Republican: The assumption of some of the papers in the northern portion of the state that the people of Southern Minnesota are hostile to it and timely reprimandment is unfounded.

Aberdeen News: Beyond a doubt Mr. Mellette will not only be the last territorial executive, but the first to fill that high place in the history of the state of South Dakota.

Red Wing Republican: The setting aside of $55,000 of the government appropriation for work on the Mississippi river, for the purpose of making improvement at the head of Lake Pepin, is a welcome intelligence to the river men. Helena Herald: The Herald has designs upon no office. Let no one for a moment distrust the sincerity of this avowal. The Herald is in nobody's way for any official honors that anybody wants.
Little Falls Transcript: The "reform" government of Minneapolis is about the greatest fraud we have heard of lately.
Jackson Republican: If ever a man has made himself despised and distrusted by all thinking men in Jackson and Martin counties, it is the man who represents this county in the legislature. He has held his last term if signs go for anything.

Grand Forks Herald: Everything indicates that the Red River Valley will have at least two lines of railroad. Lake Superior—the Duluth & Winnipeg and an extension of the Manitoba from Crookston. The D. & W. people are sure to build whether they succeed in their land grant fight in the Minnesota legislature or not, and it is also quite evident that the Manitoba will extend its line.

TILLIE.
[Biswell's "Clint in a Quiver"]
"I've a maid in mind,
Fashioned like a flower,
Tenderly nurtured
In a shady nook.
Oh, but she is fair,
As the slender lily;
And my only one Is—Tillie."
Lovers round her throng—
Who would not be near her?
Every word a song—
How long to hear her!
Bachelors may laugh,
So I'm ready wily:
Would my "better half"
Were—Tillie.

Let the world go by—
Sour or sunny weather—
If but she and I
Gaze on it together.
Here will I confess,
As the slender lily,
Hope to have a "yes"
From Tillie.

Marion Crawford's new book, "The Greenstone," Francis Gallon's "Natural Inheritance," and Francis Gallon's "Natural Inheritance," are in hand for early publication by Macmillan.

Duluth bookellers report that "Robert Elsmere" is now being bargained for and is as much as the apparent by-laws as "She" and "Mr. Barrister."

It is estimated that 500 copies of the book were sold by local dealers.

The Popular Science Monthly for April will contain a scientific explanation of the power to ensure the human mind possessed by the leading delusion of the present day. The article is by Prof. Jos. Jastrow, and is entitled "The Psychology of Spiritualism."

HE HAD READ IT.

How a "Frontier Citizen" launched into Literary Criticism.
The "Robert Elsmere" friend encountered a prominent citizen the other day and queried eagerly:
"Have you read 'Robert Elsmere'?"
"Yes," replied the prominent citizen, with great earnestness, "I read and enjoyed it greatly. I don't think I ever struck anything much finer than the part where Barbara had a cigar stump which has been thrown aside by her dead husband. It is a magnificent piece of writing, sir."

"But you misunderstood my question, sir! You are talking of 'The Quick and the Dead,' and I asked you if you had read 'Robert Elsmere.'"

"Oh," he cried, "pardon me. Yes, I have read the work you speak of. I am a republican, but I must admit that I admire Mr. Cleveland's nerve and determination as displayed in the message in question. His references to the tariff matter are—"

"Great heavens!" said the other, "what are you talking about? Haven't you heard of Robert Elsmere?"

"Most certainly, I think that Rider Haggard reached the pinnacle of his greatness in that book. Who could conceive a more sublime situation than that presented by the little group, when the fire of eternal life, when, to show Robert Elsmere's 'The Improvement of Third Avenue' is the construction of a storm sewer on said avenue from First street to Second street, according to plan and specifications on file in the office of said Board?"

Devoid of Startling Events, but a Full Quota of Small Matters.

Big Work in Rock Cuts--At the Local Courts--General News.

SOME ROCK WORK.

How Duluth Cuts Out the Blue Granite of Her Hills--Notes of Present Work.

A tremendous blast at the West First street cut this morning, the result of several days of preliminary work in blasting, tore out nearly 200 cubic yards of rock. It was the last blast necessary to make a connection between the wall of rock that has been the point of attack of drill and dynamite for some time past, and finally succumbed to the ingenuity, skill and perseverance of man. "By faith ye shall remove mountains," was the motto of nearly 2000 years ago, and Duluth has paraded the world of wit, "By energy and explosives will we remove mountains." And Duluth mountains are of trap and primordial blue granite fully as hard and stubborn as those of Judea. This was not, however, by any means the biggest of all Duluth's great rock cuts, and the figures of half a dozen would be a perpetual surprise to men who have been believing themselves to be well versed in public works. When Third street was cut through with one piece of rock work of 17,000 yards, it was thought a marvelous thing, when Fourth surpassed it with one of 20,000. It was then that the city was undertaken containing 35,000 yards of rock work, and now no work will excite more than passing notice.

The First street cut, begun last summer, is about completed, and all laborers have been laid off for a few weeks until the weather is settled. Nearly all the 30,000 yards have been cut out, and all that remains is to clean it out and blast off projections, etc. It will be completed in about six weeks. Seventy-five men have been employed at this cut for about eight months, together with half a dozen sleds and a great steam drill of tremendous power. On the Fourth avenue east rock work the contractor will begin in a few days.

NAVIGATION OPEN.

Put This Date in Your Hat--Other Openings of Navigation.

The fishing tug Eviston cleared for south shore fishing stations yesterday morning with a cargo of nets, fish boxes and other supplies. She found no trouble in going through the outside ice. She returned to her dock at 7:30 in the evening.

A new building or landing corner consisting of oak piles locked together with bolts and stout chains has been placed at the corner of the dock at the end of the N. P. slip.

The record broke the silence of the winter season Saturday afternoon about 5 o'clock, and made the first trip of the season. She headed for the St. Paul & Duluth ship but made a detour to the Preston and broke the ice around that boat. Then she took a run up to Williams & Upham docks and broke the ice around that portion of the ship. After this she took a little spin over toward the St. Paul & Pacific docks and then turned home. She was accompanied by spectators on board who enjoyed the first trip immensely.

The Ossifrage will probably go into commission the last of next week. Commodore Inman is rushing the work on her.

The new planking on the St. Paul & Duluth ship is about half completed. It will be finished long before the first boat arrives.

Bets on the time of the arrival of the first boat through the "800" were made. April 25 to April 28 seems to be the favorite.

The railroad companies will commence the clearing up of the tracks this week. While they are about it a few auger holes here and there would save the planking from a good deal of soaking in hard rains.

As navigation is now well open at Duluth, and as no impediment will probably close it until next winter, it will be of interest to give the date of former openings in the past twelve years. It will be observed that the year 1880 is by considerable the earliest of all.

CAPTURED CLOQUET.

The Duluth Minstrel Club Given the Freedom of the Lake City.

The sign "standing room only" would not have been applicable at the Nelson hall at Clouet Saturday night for there was not even standing room. The new hall was packed, and the club well deserved the house it had. Surely Clouet never had as fine an entertainment and Duluth rarely has seen such an array of actual merit in burlesque work as was there. The parade was led by the band, and almost the entire population of Clouet made up its rear. As the full program of the club's entertainment was given in the Herald a few days ago it cannot be repeated at this time, but suffice it to say that all the performers acted well and there was hardly a suspicion of amateurism. Stuffy effects were happily absent and the performance was complete and well rounded. Costuming was excellent and the Duluth Minstrel club has nothing of which to complain in its initial performance.

At 4 this afternoon the entire club, nearly fifty strong, attired in regulation minstrel style, silk hats and all, paraded the streets, it being their last appearance at home. Tonight's performance at Turner hall will be before a crowded house.

THE POLICE RUN.

Three ordinary drunks appeared before Judge Morris this morning and suffered the usual fine.

The most of the morning session was taken up with the long calendar of 78 cases, the day being more or less return day. A majority of cases on the calendar proved to be suits of Reever W. E. Wright, of the Duluth Life society against members who were delinquent in their assessments. Denunciations were filed in nearly every case and next Tuesday was the day selected for hearing and argument. That day will go into court history as denunciations day. The judge found occasion to call the large number of attorneys to order once or twice by firmly reminding them that they were in a court-room.

To Use Mail Refuse.

The Duluth landowners are in a fair way of getting rid of a good deal of refuse which it has hoarded there for some time to dispose of without entailing considerable expense. A box factory or two is to make use of much of the material which has gone into the wood piles, and now an ingenious individual has a scheme on foot to turn all the sawdust into a mercurial fuel which can be readily handled, and which may take the place of coal.

THE DAY IN THE CITY.

The regular meeting of the chamber of commerce is held tomorrow morning.

Minimum temperature this morning was 33 above zero. The day has been dull but warm.

This evening the Minstrel club. Its initial performance at Clouet showed the club to be a fine organization.

The acting street commissioner, Westaway, had a force of men at work yesterday keeping the gutters in clean condition.

The Duluth Electric company received ten car loads of poles Saturday and commenced distributing them today.

Strawberries, and nice ones, too, are in Duluth markets. Six consumptive boxes of pale red raspberries were also seen on Saturday.

Sing Lee, known as Charley, is rejoicing over the arrival of Wong Fing, his twelve year old son, direct from China. He is a bright, intelligent lad.

Chas. Smith, a single man, 54 years old, exhibited slight symptoms of insanity Saturday. He was examined but was not found sufficiently daff to warrant his detention. He is now at home but will be kept under the watchful eyes of the police.

The police are much pleased over the striking likeness to the originals in Sunday's article on the pluses in the Minneapolis Tribune.

A large crowd was attracted to the front of N. J. Hoff's shoe store this afternoon. The cause of the unusual parade was a punning match which took place on the inside. Neither combatant was badly hurt.

Mike Conley was seen this morning in Ashland and said that he was ready to meet Sheehy at any time. If the latter is anxious to fight he can cover the $500 Jim Murnane has ready to give the sporting editor of the Herald, as stake holder.

Twill Curry Moves.

The Duluth Union National bank will take out the present elevator in its big building in a few weeks and will replace it by two of the Elliott pattern, operated by independent automatic hydraulic power. The old elevator has never proved quite satisfactory, and would not carry the load needed, partly on account of poor water pressure.

H. S. Barnett's Benefit.

Saturday evening the Peoples theater was crowded, the special occasion being a testimonial benefit tendered to H. S. Barnett, the manager, by the entire force of attaches and a host of volunteers.

The audience witnessed a really good variety performance which lasted until midnight. The beneficiary appeared in his happiest selections and received enthusiastic applause. "Paddy" was summoned to the stage toward the close of the performance and presented with a fine silver water service bearing the following inscription: "Presented to H. S. Barnett by the Peoples Theater company, March 16, 1889, Duluth, Minn."

WORLD OF COMMERCE.

A Dull and Quiet Day in Wheat in Duluth--All Trades in May.

Stocks and Wheat Elsewhere Break Some--Copper Failures.

Duluth wheat was not affected by the declines in Chicago and the East today and was steady and firm with but little trading, all of it in May wheat.

The market kept steady at Saturday's close where all sales were made. A failure of a large London copper house and as well several French houses was a dealer on wheat here as well as elsewhere but had no depressing effect as in New York and Europe.

Cash closed nominally 1/4 cent lower at 108 1/2 for 1 hard, 50 for 1 Northern and 80 for 2 Northern. May sold at 113, and closed there. June was quiet at 111 1/2 unchanged.

Curb Notes.

Wheat in store here today amounts to 1,836,169 bushels, of which 1,173,000 bushels are in the Lake Superior and Union Improvement companies' hands, 701,000 bushels with the Duluth Elevator company and 27,000 bushels in the Great Northern. Of the 803,288 bushels in store, 84,242 bushels are in the hands of the Union Improvement company. The balance is 719,046 bushels, of which 174,719 bushels, out to change.

Receipts of wheat today 10,538 bushels. On track, wheat 20 cars, corn 49. Of the 20 cars, 10 are made in 1 hard.

New York went off 1 1/2 cents and Chicago 2 cents on unfavorable outside reports.

The visible supply shows a decrease of 57,000 bushels wheat, 38,000 bushels corn and 272,000 bushels oats, making total wheat stock 31,187,000 bushels.

MONEY AND STOCKS.

Big Drops in Some Stocks--A Decline All Along the List in New York.

New York, March 18.--Money is easy at 2 to 3%. Bar silver 93 1/2. The stock market continued to decline after 11 o'clock and the lowest prices of the morning were reached all over the list.

The heaviest pressure was upon Burlington & Quincy and the Pacific coast, the former retired 1 1/4 further, making an extreme loss of 2 1/2% from Saturday's closing price, reaching 36, the lowest price this year. Texas Pacific recorded an extreme loss of 1 1/4%, but in no other case was the loss for more than a slight fraction. The market soon reacted, however, and material recoveries followed, but the early losses were not regained, and toward noon the market became quite dull and stagnant. At 12 o'clock it was quiet and barely steady, generally at small fractions under the opening prices.
